Mining Companies, Ferrymen and Shipmasters
Are informed that Wire Rope can be furnished them considerably under the cost of Hemp or Manila, of equal strength.
Wire Rope does not stretch or shrink by change of weather. It weighs 40 per cent, less than hemp, is less than one half the diameter; is easily spliced under all circumstances; is as pliable for equal strength; and is from four to five times as durable as the best Hemp or Manila Rope.

For Hoisting from Deep Mines the economy of its application is immense.
The Wire from which my Ropes are made is manufactured in San Francisco by the Pacific Wire Manufacturing Company, from the very best of stock.

NOTE.—STEEL WIRE ROPE weighs about six-tenths of Iron Rope, or one-third of Hemp of equal strength. Its extreme lightness saves largely in freight to remote places, and its great durability recommends it for hoisting purposes, etc. See table of comparative weights, strengths and sizes of

ENDLESS WIRE ROPEWAY,
(Wire Tramway) secured by numerous patents.

By means of the Ropeway, ores, rock and other material can be transported over mountainous and difficult places, where it would be impossible or exceedingly expensive to build a road. It can deliver from five to fifty tons per hour, according to capacity; and being carried upon posts above snow and other obstructions, can be used when other modes of transportation would be impossible.

PREFATORY.

In placing before the public the present volume, the first of the Oakland and Brooklyn Directory, the compiler considers it an appropriate occasion to refer to the character and plan of the work, and the objects designed to be accomplished by its publication.

It is proposed to issue the Oakland and Brooklyn Directory annually, in July; and to include therein, in addition to a reliable register of the residents of these localities, such information connected with the local governments, the material progress and condition of each, as will make the work a valuable manual of reference, and a welcome annual visitor to every resident. In the prosecution of this general plan, the compiler begs to state, that the information comprised in the present volume has been carefully compiled from data obtained from official and other reliable sources; and in directing attention thereto, he only asks, for any defects existing therein, that consideration to which he is entitled, after a reasonable estimate of the difficulties inseparably connected with enterprises of this character.

An examination of the contents of the present volume will exhibit the varied character of the different subjects embraced within its pages. The historical and statistical references include a mass of valuable information connected with the history of Oakland, now for the first time published. The articles on Land Titles, Population, and Finances are worthy of special attention. The Appendix contains the Charter of the City of Oakland, the Acts of the Legislature establishing the Board of Education and the Police Court, opening and improving the Public Streets, etc.; and the ordinances of the City with reference to Licenses, Public Health and City Wharf, with the different amendments to date; to which have been added abstracts of several important legal decisions affecting the same: the whole presenting a department of information concerning the laws of the City of Oakland not to be found in any other publication. The Brooklyn division of the work comprises, in addition to a list of residents, extended references to the past history and present condition of that town, an abstract of the Charter and a list of the local officers, statements of the operations of the school and other departments of government, the officers of the different societies, churches, etc., and a variety of other interesting data of a local character.

The first Oakland Directory, published in January, 1869, by B. F. Stillwell, was an octavo volume of 272 pages. It comprised the names of 1878 adult residents of Oakland, and a large amount of valuable data concerning the early history and progress of the City. The second Directory, issued in January, 1870, by Cook & Miller, was an octavo volume of 200 pages. It included the names of 1,635 adult residents of Oakland, and considerable information concerning the affairs of the City of Oakland and the County of Alameda. These two volumes, (with the exception of a worthless publication issued in 1871, under the title of a "County Directory") comprise the list of Oakland Directories published to this date.

The number of references contained in the Oakland Directory for 1872 is 3,984, of which 3,350, are adult males. Population estimated at 12,011; number of buildings in the city, estimated, 1,450, of which 45 are of brick. Number of references in the Brooklyn Directory, 783, of which 680 are adult males. Population estimated at 2,750. Thorough and reliable statistics on these subjects will be found in the Historical and General Review.

The Map of Oakland and its environs, which accompanies the present volume, has been corrected in accordance with recent surveys; and the additions incident to the recent extension of the city's limits have been included therein. The Directory of Streets, now for the first time published, has been compiled from the official surveys of the City Engineer, and other data obtained during the progress of the canvass for the work.

In the absence of a system for numbering the buildings of the City of Oakland, considerable difficulty has been encountered in definitely locating the residences of many persons referred to in the Register of Names. It is to be hoped, however, that before another year shall have passed away, some plan will have been adopted and enforced to remove what is now regarded as a public inconvenience.

The pages of the present volume afford abundant evidences of the present prosperous condition of Oakland and "her neighbor" Brooklyn. In almost every department of human industry, the most unmistakable signs of advancement are observed, and a reference to the "facts and figures" presented in the Historical Review cannot fail to produce a result in every respect worthy of the progressive and enterprising spirit of their people.

In the preparation and compilation of the present volume, the compiler would express his obligations to those gentlemen who have courteously and promptly answered his numerous applications for information. He is especially indebted to William D. Harwood, Esq., for valuable and interesting contributions to the Historical and General Review, and other important data furnished for other departments of the work. His intimate acquaintance with the affairs of Oakland, past and present, has been of material assistance in the compilation and preparation of the work for the press. To Dr. G. E. Sherman, for valuable mortuary statistics; to Col. John Scott; and to the different officers of the city government, especially to H. Hillebrand, Esq., City Clerk, to Captain F. B. Tarbett, and to Edward Hoskins, Esq., he is under obligations for valuable information.

To William Halley, Esq., of Brooklyn, he would express his thanks for interesting notes on the history of that town. Also, to the citizens of Oakland and Brooklyn, for their uniform courtesy; and to the patrons of the work, for their substantial evidences of sympathy and good-will.

Oakland, August, 1872.

A GLANCE AT THE CITY'S HISTORY.

The territory now covered by the City of Oakland was, until 1853, a portion of Contra Costa County. In that year the Legislature created the new county of Alameda, with the boundaries as they still exist. May 14th, 1852, there was approved an Act of the Legislature incorporating the Town of Oakland. Prior to that time the history of the place is meager and unimportant. When it had first been seen that a city must necessarily be built somewhere on the Bay of San Francisco, a cursory examination was made of the Contra Costa shore. The village of Yerba Buena did not offer many flattering inducements to men seeking to found a city, because its steep hills came down to the water's edge, and the most casual observer could not fail to note the vast amount of labor that would be required to level off these hills and fill in the Bay so as to make room for the thousands of buildings that must be quickly erected. But the temporary difficulties on the eastern side of the Bay were still more grave. A flat extended out for a distance of two miles, timber suitable for the purposes of wharf-building was not easily obtained, and commanded an enormous price, and no hope was entertained of building the metropolis on the present site of Oakland.

The sandy peninsula was covered by a dense growth of oak trees, which subsequently gave to the place its name, and beneath the trees were numerous thickets of chapparal and tangled underbrush. Some four miles to the north was the residence of Vincente Peralta, and around it were settled a few other native Californians. The only use made of the peninsula of Oakland was to obtain from it the necessary supplies of fuel. At some remote period there had been Indian camps upon the northern banks of the San Antonio Creek, and the mounds, composed mainly of oyster shells, are not yet entirely obliterated. San Pablo was a flourishing Mission and San Antonio (now Brooklyn) was a town before there was a solitary settler in Oakland. Indeed, for a year or two after the settlement of Oakland, San Antonio was in advance. It had formerly been an embarcadero from which were shipped the hides and horns collected in the adjoining country.

The first settlement was in 1851, and the original inhabitants were H. W. Carpentier, Edson Adams and A. J. Moon. By these persons the land was taken in possession, and through their efforts public attention was first drawn to the location. Charles Minturn became interested with them, and placed upon the San Antonio Creek a steamboat that was ample to accommodate the business between Oakland and San Francisco. The town, in 1852, had no local business and no means of self-support. On account of the pleasantness of the trip over the Bay, and the delightful groves, numerous visitors were attracted, and a few gentlemen of means soon purchased land upon which they erected dwelling-houses. At this early date the present condition of the city was foreshadowed. It was a suburban resort. There were but few people in the place in 1852, but enough to require a public school and a city wharf. The Act of Incorporation vested in the Town Trustees the power to make these improvements, and also the right to dispose of the water front, which in the same Act was ceded by the State to the city. The first Board of Trustees, consisting of A. W. Barrell, A. J. Moon, Edson Adams and A. Marier, (H. W. Carpentier was elected, but failed to qualify) by a series of acts transferred to H. W. Carpentier the title to the water front, in return for which he was to erect a public school house and build a wharf at the foot of Broadway, the latter to cost twenty thousand dollars. The subsequent history of this transaction furnishes an example of the most persistent and interesting litigation that can be found in the records of the several courts. The school house then built still remains in its original form, and preserves its ancient appearance, but it has been removed to the corner of Market and Seventh streets, and is now occupied as an African Church.

For two years following, the town continued to grow, and became a center of trade for the Mexicans living in the adjoining country. The lands in the Oakland Valley were brought under cultivation, and considerable quantities of produce were exported.

In the spring of the year 1853, the Oakland College School was established by Rev. Henry Durant, now President of the State University. A frame building on the northeast corner of Broadway and Fifth streets, that had been prior to that used as a hotel, was rented, and President Durant commenced teaching school with a class of three pupils. This school, planted in the Oakland forests in 1853, has grown and expanded, and has at last been developed into the University of California, the peer of any institution of learning in America. The establishment of the school was not a private enterprise, undertaken for pecuniary purposes. It was the result of a correspondence commenced as early as 1849, upon the founding of a college, and it was with that purpose in view that President Durant made his humble beginning. Other and excellent literary institutions have since sprung into existence, and it is not without propriety that Oakland is sometimes called the Athens of the Pacific Coast. But it is to be doubted if Oakland would now enjoy that distinction had fate led President Durant to select some other locality.

March 25th, 1854, a charter was granted for the "City of Oakland," (what is now termed the City Charter is an amendment to this Act) and a fresh impulse was given to public affairs. Three hundred and sixty-eight votes were cast at the first election after the granting of the charter, and Horace W. Carpentier was elected Mayor. The people of Oakland even then entertained very lofty ideas about the prospective importance of the place, and in his first message, the Mayor gave it as his opinion that the trans-continental railroad, that then seemed to be so far off, must terminate here. A newspaper called the Alameda Express was at that time published in Oakland, and in its columns can be found the message in full. There was a Fire Department and a School Department, and governmental machinery enough to run a vast city. The Council elected in 1854 was "Anti-Carpentier," and caused proceedings to be instituted to recover the water front. This and all other litigation against Mr. Carpentier touching the ownership of the property in question was unavailing.

The dredging of the Bar at the mouth of the San Antonio Creek greatly benefited the city, and the rivalry between the Larue and Minturn lines of ferry boats, by cheapening fares, advanced the prosperity of the town.

During the decade between 1854 and 1864, there is but little of interest to be noted. The First Presbyterian Church and the Catholic Church had been started, the College of California had been incorporated but had not an actual existence, the town grew moderately, and attracted but little attention. The improvement at the mouth of the Creek was not of long duration, and on account of the uncertainty of the ferry, many people who felt inclined to become residents of Oakland refused to do so.

The extending of a pier from "Gibbons' Point" into the deep water opposite Goat Island had long been projected, and when the San Francisco and Oakland Railroad Company undertook the work, Oakland commenced a new life. Population increased very steadily, communication with San Francisco was frequent and regular, and modern Oakland was ushered into existence. In 1868, real estate speculation began to assume prodigious proportions. Homestead associations almost without number were formed, and the lands north of the city that had for years been used as farms were staked off into homestead lots, upon many of which comfortable and elegant residences have since been erected.

The great and apparently all-important event in the history of Oakland, since it emerged from the condition of a country village and became a city in fact as well as in name, is the compromise of the water-front litigation and the cession of certain lands to the Western Pacific Railroad Company, whereby the terminus was secured for Oakland.

In 1867, the location of the Western terminus of the Pacific Railroad was a matter that attracted considerable attention in certain circles, but which the public generally had not commenced to consider. In the summer of that year the City Council decided to obtain a settlement of the water front controversy if possible. As the property stood, no person could convey a valid title to it, the city and Mr. Carpentier each claiming it. If probabilities were to be considered, it seemed as if the city would lose in any proceedings that might be undertaken. Honorable John B. Felton was employed on a liberal contingent fee to attend to the matter. It soon became apparent that unless a compromise was effected, so that either the city or Carpentier could make a conveyance of some of this property to the Railroad Company, the terminus would be located elsewhere on the eastern shore of the Bay. Various negotiations were entered into, and the parties having come to a clear understanding, the whole affair was laid before the people of the city, receiving their formal endorsement and approval. In 1868, the Legislature being in session, a brief act was passed giving the City Council power to compromise and settle any litigation in which the city might be a party. On April 1st, 1868, the Council passed an ordinance releasing to Mr. Carpentier the city's claim to the entire water front, and ratifying and endorsing the acts of the first Board of Trustees, who had also conveyed to him the same property. Mr. Carpentier deeded the whole of it to the Water Front Company, and the Water Front Company conveyed certain portions of it to the Western Pacific Railroad Company. In consideration of the grant, the Railroad Company agreed to locate its terminus in Oakland, and expend five hundred thousand dollars thereon within a stipulated time—conditions that have been faithfully kept. There was reserved to the city a portion of the water front of the northern bank of the San Antonio Creek, lying below Water street, between Webster and Franklin streets, and extending to deep water. The cumbersome details by which the compromise was perfected are not given in this connection, as they have long since been placed publicly on record, and can readily be consulted by any one who desires a critical knowledge concerning them.

In June, 1869, the clouds that had been overhanging city property were dispersed, a compromise whereby all outstanding claims could be purchased at a nominal rate having been effected. This is of great importance, and will receive further attention in another connection. The years 1868 and 1869 were the most important in the city's history. The location of the terminus had been settled, land titles had been perfected, the State University secured for the city, and the local ferry had been improved so as to meet all the wants of the people. The wild real estate excitement having culminated without causing a depression in prices, the erection of buildings has progressed more rapidly than ever. The number of people who arrive and depart daily amounts to several thousand. The value of the property subject to taxation cannot be less than twenty millions. A reputation has been established, and the city is flourishing and prosperous.

Facts stated in other parts of this work show what vast sums of money have been expended in public and private improvements, what care has been taken to render the city healthy and attractive, and how her people foster learning and religion. There still reside in Oakland a hundred or more people who were here at its first settlement, and it is hardly to be wondered if they doubt the evidence of their own senses when contemplating the changes that have been wrought within twenty years.

NATURAL ADVANTAGES OF OAKLAND.

Although the pioneer city-builders in California thought that Oakland was on the wrong side of the Bay, the experience of the last few years teaches us that they were in error. It has become almost self-evident that the Bay has no right or wrong side, but that its entire shore has its appropriate use.

The city is located upon a sandy peninsula, containing about four square miles of available building ground. Oakland commands present importance because it is the favorite site for homes. Thousands of San Francisco gentlemen have been attracted by its pleasant climate and beautiful scenery, and have here located their dwellings. Persons of fortune coming from all parts of California have chosen Oakland for their future residence. The advantages offered by the city are its easy access to San Francisco, its elegant appearance, its healthfulness, its perfect system of public schools, the State University, and the numerous educational institutions conducted by private enterprise.

The Central Pacific Railroad Company has been liberal in providing ferry facilities. On the local railroad there are fourteen round trips daily, trains running from twenty minutes before six in the morning until half-past eleven at night. An average number of about four thousand five hundred people cross on the ferry daily, and the business is so rapidly increasing that a double track will be imperatively demanded in the immediate future. The time required for the trip is forty minutes, and it is cheaper and easier to reach Oakland than any other city or town in the vicinity of San Francisco. The elegant appearance of the city is universally conceded. The smooth, macadamized streets, the numerous shade trees, the hundreds of beautiful gardens, and the thousand or more costly residences, render the place exceedingly attractive to the visitor. The death rate is one-half of that in San Francisco—a fact that is of itself sufficient proof of the remarkable healthfulness of the city. The afternoon winds that prevail in San Francisco during the summer months reach Oakland with diminished force. The close proximity of the hills in the rear of the city and the many large and stately trees serve as a protection. There are other reasons, perhaps difficult of comprehension, but the fact is well known that when the winds prevail in San Francisco with great violence only moderate breezes are felt in Oakland. The sea fogs of summer which roll in from the ocean vanish from Oakland several hours before they cease to overshadow San Francisco. Perfect immunity from wind and fog can be found only in the interior, but intensely hot and scorching weather is an annoyance that far more than counterbalances the pleasure to be derived from a sky that is always clear, and the freedom from the ocean mists. The temperature is somewhat less variable than in San Francisco. The public schools are not to be surpassed in excellence, the reputation of the private seminaries of learning is established, and the inestimable value and importance of the University is understood and appreciated by the people of California so well that a mere reference is all that is here needed. The facts and statistics recorded in this volume present the almost numberless advantages of Oakland as a place of residence. The appreciation of those advantages is shown by the steadily increasing population, derived from all parts of the Pacific Coast.

But Oakland aspires to be something more than a mere place of residence. The germs for an extensive local business have already appeared, and in the fullness of time she is certain to be self-sustaining. An examination of the map of California will show that Oakland is now and was by nature adapted to be the railroad center of the State. By the Western Pacific Railroad, the distance from Sacramento to San Francisco is materially less than around the southern extremity of the Bay, and the shortest possible route has been surveyed for the air line road between those two points by way of Oakland and Martinez. The project of bridging the Bay so that trains can run directly to San Francisco will not be a measure of economy until the traffic becomes so great that seven large and powerful steamers like the Thoroughfare cannot accommodate it, according to the opinion and estimate of the leading civil engineers of California, given in response to questions in writing by the Mayor of San Francisco. To sustain such a business it would require an almost continual line of freight and passenger cars, arriving and departing. In respect to economy and rapidity of transit, Oakland holds the commanding position. It has been argued with seeming force that the commerce of a large city cannot be carried on when wharves two miles in length are required in order to reach deep water. This is eminently true, and unless Goat Island be used for terminal purposes, the superior advantages offered by the San Antonio Creek will be made available. The improvement of this splendid natural harbor is contemplated by the Water Front Company, and plans for the work have long been in existence. To render it a proper harbor for vessels of the largest tonnage is properly a national work, and at the last session of Congress a survey of the Oakland Harbor was provided for, as preliminary to an appropriation for doing the work. Oakland can then feel that she has a commerce of her own. There will be no further necessity for the Central Pacific Railroad Company to erect costly and perishable structures almost in the middle of the Bay. The importance of the proposed work is duly appreciated, and its completion will be perhaps the most important event in the history of the city. At the present time a considerable portion of the wheat crop of the immense valley of the San Joaquin is shipped from the railroad warehouses on the extremity of the Oakland pier, and tea and other products of the Orient have been transferred at the same point.

Nature seems to have done everything possible in behalf of Oakland, but nothing worthy of attainment is ever offered except at the price of toil, and the amount of labor and perseverance demanded from Oakland is slight in the extreme. The merest effort is all that is needed. The city is not to be erected at the expense of San Francisco, nor is it expected that the business of the metropolis need be diminished in order to secure Oakland’s success. The business and wealth to center in Oakland will be an absolute and positive addition to the resources of the State.

The assessment for the fiscal year 1872-3 is not completed as the Directory goes to press, but it is estimated that it will show $6,000,000 of taxable property. The assessments for city purposes have been made at one-third of the actual value of the real estate and improvements, and at a low estimate the real value of property in the city is in excess of twenty million dollars.

The appraised value of property owned by the city is as follows:

- School-houses and Lots: $134,000
- City Hall: 100,000
- Water Front and Wharf: 25,000
- Engine House on Broadway: 1,500
- Fire Engine and other Personal Property: 15,000

Total: $275,500

The city paid $12,500, one half the cost of Webster street bridge, and owns seven public squares, worth an average of twenty thousand dollars each, so that the value of the property under the control of the city very nearly corresponds with the amount of the public debt.

Within the eighteen months ending June 30th, 1871, the prosperity and general progress of the city has been highly satisfactory. The bridge crossing the San Antonio Creek from the foot of Webster street, which, with the roadway on the Alameda shore, cost $45,000, has been a great convenience to the people of Alameda and Oakland. The travel across it has steadily increased, and a very considerable portion of the goods and merchandise used in Alameda is now purchased in Oakland. A street railroad company has a franchise to lay its track over the bridge, but work has not been commenced. The city wharf is not completed at this date, but it will speedily be made available. The structure is to cost twenty thousand dollars. It is built upon the water front reservation, and is an unusually solid and firm structure. Piers extend from the extremities of Webster and Franklin streets, and are connected on the line of deep water in the creek. At low tide there will be a depth of nine feet of water. At the end of the wharf and at high tide the water is sixteen feet deep. It will afford ample accommodations for a steamboat landing, and for the numerous small vessels engaged in freighting lumber, wood, coal and other coarse commodities to Oakland.

The contract for constructing this wharf had been let to Boobar & Co. for $17,250, but there having been additions and alterations, the Council has set apart $20,000 as a wharf fund. On the line of deep water, there is a frontage of 320 feet. The pier extending from Franklin street is forty feet wide, and that from Webster street is twenty-five feet wide. There is a slip forty-five feet wide on the eastern side of the wharf.

The city has been enlarged by extending her limits, so as to embrace a thickly settled portion of the Oakland Valley, the map at the commencement of this volume showing the exact lines. This enlargement was the act of the people interested, who, by an affirmative vote of two to one, decided to bring their property under the jurisdiction of the city. They were prompted to do so on account of the educational facilities at the public schools, the benefits to be derived from the protection afforded by the Police and Fire Departments, and the readiness with which streets can be laid out and improved under the laws relative to the City of Oakland.

The exemption from the payment of an unjust and odious road tax, which did not benefit the city, is another subject for congratulation. For more than ten years a tax averaging forty-six cents on each one hundred dollars had been levied on property in Oakland, and expended for the improvement of roads through the ranches in the rear of Oakland, and in other parts of the county. The Legislature of 1871-2 abolished the tax, and the burdens imposed upon the people are to that extent lightened.

The city's title to the water front reservation on the creek has been perfected by a decision of the Supreme Court, defeating the adverse claim asserted by the San Francisco and Oakland Railroad Company.

A new engine house has been erected on the City Hall grounds, and an order has been sent East for another powerful steam fire engine, which is expected to arrive in Oakland in September. The Police Department has received special attention, is splendidly organized and is in the highest degree efficient. During the year 1871, 1,055 arrests were made. The latest improvement is the establishment of a line of telegraph connecting the City Hall with various remote parts of the city, which facilitates the work of the policemen, often leads to the capture of escaping criminals or suspected persons, and will be invaluable in enabling an alarm of fire to be given promptly. The telegraph line has not been constructed at the expense of the city, but has been paid for from the private funds of the Captain of Police, Foster B. Tarbett.

Morse instruments are used, and each police officer is able to receive and transmit messages. On several occasions, fire alarms have been communicated with promptness to the City Hall, and the firemen have been enabled to proceed to fires with the least possible delay. There is a station at Seventh street, south side, between Broadway and Washington streets, and one at Wilson's saloon, at the Oakland Point. The office of the Daily News is also in telegraphic communication with the City Hall. Capt. Tarbett is entitled to credit for the great efficiency of the Department. The officers under him are men of experience, and they have the respect and confidence of the people of Oakland. The avenues of approach to the city are carefully guarded. Every train that enters or departs from the city is inspected by some officer, and known thieves have often been captured while attempting to escape with their plunder, even before the officers making the arrest had heard of a robbery, or the owner of the goods had become aware of his loss. Incidents of this nature have happened so often, that of late the swarm of sneak thieves that infest the lower quarters of San Francisco have ceased to visit Oakland, because of the certainty that they would be caught should they commit depredations. The security enjoyed by the people on account of this wholesome terror among evil doers is hardly realized. Without ample police protection, Oakland would be a most inviting field for burglars and robbers, and property would be very insecure. The eleven men on the regular force are barely enough to attend to the duties that are required; a large area of territory is to be looked after, and the city should not be backward about employing a sufficient number of vigilant sentinels.

There has been a marked improvement in the general aspect and appearance of the city. House building has been confined to no particular locality. In every part of the city can be seen new buildings and houses in process of erection. On Broadway, above Eighth street, several elegant and substantial fire-proof brick buildings have been erected. We enumerate the buildings of the Union Savings Bank, Benitz' Building, Sessions' Building and Canning's Building. These are two-story brick buildings, with basements, built in the most solid and substantial manner and are ornaments to the city. The completion of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, on Jefferson street, between Seventh and Eighth streets, adds another magnificent structure to the number of which Oakland already boasts. The condition of the city is prosperous, its growth from year to year, for six years past, has been in an increasing ratio, and the most sanguine hopes have been fully realized.

LAND TITLES.

ABSTRACT OF THE ORIGIN OF THE TITLE TO THE LAND ON WHICH THE CITY OF OAKLAND IS SITUATED.

During the first few years after the settlement of the city, it was the popular belief that the "Squatter Title" was valid, and most of the property was purchased from those who had originally taken possession. After the amount of litigation that is usually required to establish the legality of a Mexican grant, the Peralta title obtained recognition, and has withstood every attack subsequently made upon it. We append the outlines of an abstract of title to any city lot:

1. Grant from the Mexican Government to Luis Maria Peralta, of the "Rancho San Antonio," embracing the lands upon which the City of Oakland is located. Dated October 18th, 1822.

2. In 1842, Luis Maria Peralta made a division of the Rancho San Antonio among his four sons, Ignacio, Antonio, Domingo and Vincente, and put them in possession of their respective portions. Vincente Peralta received that portion on which the City of Oakland is situated.

3. In 1851, Luis Maria Peralta executed an instrument purporting to be a will, wherein he ratified and confirmed the division of the Rancho San Antonio among his four sons, which instrument, the Supreme Court of California says, estops the heirs of Luis Maria Peralta from denying said gift to his sons. [See 17 Cal. Reps., Adams v. Lansing.] The invalidity of title derived from the other heirs than the sons of Luis Maria Peralta is also declared by the United States Supreme Court, in a case growing out of the "Pretermitted Heir" title, decided in the early part of this year (1872) and not yet reported.

4. In 1854, the Board of Land Commissioners confirmed the northern portion of the Rancho, embracing the City of Oakland, to Vincente and Domingo Peralta; and the same was afterwards, in 1855, confirmed by the United States District Court, and still later, at the December term in 1856, by the Supreme Court of the United States. (See 17 Howard.)

5. Ignacio, Antonio and Domingo Peralta to Vincente Peralta release and deed all of their interest in and to that portion of the Rancho embracing the City of Oakland. Dated November 28, 1853. Recorded in Liber "8," of Deeds, Recorder's office, Alameda County.

6. Vincente Peralta to John Clar, (1-6); B. De La Barra, (1-12); Jos. K. Irving, (1/4); Jacob A. Cost, (1/4); John C. Hayes and John Caperton, (1/4). Deed dated March 13th, 1852. Recorded in Contra Costa County, in which Oakland was at that date situated.

9. J. K. Irving, party of the first part; John C. Hayes and John Caperton, parties of the second part; Anna R. Poole, Catherine S. Lyons and her husband, Joseph Lyons; Serena S. Young, and her husband, Alexander H. Young, (heirs of Cost, deceased) "by William Poole, their attorney," execute a partition deed, duly proven, certified to and recorded in Alameda County.

10. Power of attorney from Anna R. Poole et al., heirs of Cost, to Wm. J. Poole, June 14th, 1853.
11. Power of attorney to Montgomery Blair, from same parties, (except Serena S. Young, who was deceased, and left minor heirs, for whom' Alexander H. Young signed as guardian) Feb. 2d, 1854.

12. Proceedings in Probate Court in the same year, by which the interest of the minor heirs of Serena S. Young became vested in Alex. H. Young.

13. Another partition deed to correct errors in description of lands not blocked off in former deed, reciting and approving the former; the same in all other respects, between the same parties (except in place of Serena S. Young, deceased, was Alexander H. Young, "by M. Blair, their attorney in fact.") Dated May 1, 1854.

14. Deed from Anna R. Poole to John C. Hayes, ratifying and confirming the former deed of partition, and confirming the acts of Blair and Black as agents, Sept. 1st, 1858.

15. Similar deed to Hayes et al. from Jos. Lyons and wife, November 10th, 1858.

16. Similar deed to Hayes et al. from Alexander H. Young, March 27th, 1860.

Subsequent to the chain of conveyances traced, title is vested in numerous owners, there being no other general claims. All the technicalities and defects which ingenuity can discover have been brought to notice. The numerous adverse titles had for years hung over property-holders like an incubus, and in the early part of the year 1869 the people began an organized movement to defeat them. The position of affairs was somewhat critical. The city was rapidly growing, and to allow the idea to go abroad that titles were insecure would check the progress of the city and cause incalculable mischief. Sound business policy overcame the desire to make a bitter fight, however, and the holders of the claims were induced to dispose of them at rates that were trivial. The specific claims were the Pretermitted Heirs title, the Sisters' title, the Irving title and Cost title, and these comprised all general titles asserted by anybody to land within the City of Oakland. These titles were by their several owners conveyed to Henry Hillebrand, the City Clerk, who acted as a Trustee, and by him conveyances were made to the several property-holders. Nearly all the land in the city is now held by a perfect title, the Hillebrand deeds removing all the clouds. These titles, except the Cost title, still cloud property outside of the old charter line. The principal ones, the Sisters and the Pretermitted Heirs, are virtually defeated, and the property-holders, to save trouble and annoyance, have quite generally purchased the other claims.

The Kate Hayes Title covers that portion of Oakland township outside of the "Encinal Line," as laid down on our map. The Supreme Court of the State has sustained a decision rendered by E. W. McKinstry, Judge of the Twelfth District Court, granting a new trial on the motion made by the defendants, (the property holders). That decision was fatal to the claim, which in itself was but for a trifling interest. A new trial has not yet been had, and the result is regarded as a foregone conclusion, the law of the case having been decided beyond appeal.
REAL ESTATE.

From E. C. Sessions, Real Estate Dealer, we have received the following statement:

Sales for year ending Nov. 1st, 1867. .......... $1,312,748
Sales for year ending Nov. 1st, 1868. .......... 2,983,719
Sales for year ending Nov. 1st, 1869. .......... 2,488,394
Transactions for 1870. ......................... 2,294,534
Transactions for 1871. ......................... 2,074,163
Transactions for first six months, 1872. ....... 1,046,266
Add sales for Dec., 1869. ...................... 297,019

Total since Oct. 30th, 1866 .................. $12,496,843

The sales reported are bona fide transactions, and do not include trust deeds, tax, blackmail, and skeleton claims. During the past two years there has been no speculation in Oakland property, sales having been made to persons desiring to improve the property. The figures plainly tell of the growing popularity of Oakland as a place of residence. There is no particular portion of the city that receives attention to the exclusion of other portions. Building improvements have extended in the direction of Temescal, through the influence of the street railroad; but during the last year house building has been pushed with the greatest energy within the original limits of the city. The lower price of lands in the suburbs is at least compensated for by the continuous expense of traveling on the horse cars. If it costs five dollars per month for a family to reach Oakland by horse cars, the homestead upon which they may live has cost actually five hundred dollars more than its apparent price, because five dollars per month is the interest on that amount. It is therefore preferable to pay five hundred dollars additional for a city lot, for while the expense would be the same, the inconvenience of street car travel is avoided. This consideration has doubtless caused the larger growth of the principal part of the city. Building lots, 50 by 100, can be purchased at prices ranging from $1,200 to $2,500, according to the location. Lots at the price first named can be obtained within easy reach of some of the stations on the San Francisco and Oakland Railroad.

WATER AND GAS.

About one-third of the population of Oakland use water obtained from the Contra Costa Water Company, and the remainder procure it from wells. By digging to a depth of twenty feet a supply of pure fresh water can be obtained; but on account of the increased size of the city, and the prevalent fear that well water is becoming contaminated with sewage, many persons are abandoning their wells and using the water that is obtained from the mountain streams. The Contra Costa Water Company commenced operations in the latter part of the year 1867, and since that time about twenty-five miles of pipe have been laid. Water is obtained from the Temescal Creek. At its eastern branch, five miles from Oakland, a cañon has been dammed, and an artificial lake, six hundred feet wide and three-quarters of a mile long, has been created. The water is seventy feet deep in winter, and the capacity of the reservoir is two hundred million gallons. The daily consumption of water varies from half a million to a million gallons per day, according to the extent to which people may irrigate their gardens. The company has also appropriated the water of the Fruit Vale Creek and built a reservoir there, with a capacity of one million gallons. In case the mountain streams run low, use is made of artesian wells in Brooklyn, the water from which is forced by steam power into the mains. The water used in the city comes from the distributing reservoir on Academy Hill, one mile from Oakland and one hundred feet above tide water.

There can be obtained almost unlimited supplies of water from the creeks in the Coast Range, and whenever additional quantities are necessary they will be made available. The supply of water to Oakland is embraced in the plans of the San Francisco and Lake Tahoe Water Company.

The purity of the water supplied by the Contra Costa Water Company has lately been tested by the State Assayer, who certifies as follows: "I consider the water analyzed to be of excellent quality, and well adapted to domestic use."

The city is furnished illuminating gas by the Oakland Gas Light Company, which commenced operations January 1st, 1867. The city entered into a ten-year contract, in 1868, to light the streets; the company to receive 22½ cents per night for each lamp until the number should exceed two hundred and fifty lamps, when the price was to be reduced to twenty cents per lamp. The annual amount of the bills for lighting the streets in the city, is $15,000. The company has laid about sixteen miles of mains, and now supplies with gas the Town of Brooklyn. The works are located on the corner of Washington and First streets, and have a capacity of one hundred thousand cubic feet per day. The price charged to consumers is five dollars per thousand cubic feet.

The Home Gas Light Company has a franchise to lay mains through the streets and supply the city with pneumatic gas, but has not yet commenced the erection of works.

THE RAILROAD SYSTEM.

It is broadly asserted that Oakland is the center of the railroad system of the Pacific Coast, and a mere glance at any railroad map shows that such is the case. The several lines of railroad in operation in California are either owned or controlled by the Central Pacific Railroad Company, and they all concentrate in this city. Words cannot convey this idea as forcibly as any railroad map and an accompanying table of distances. Not only the railroads now in existence, but those projected and likely to be completed within the next few years, converge to the same point. As San Francisco now is and ever must be the metropolis of the Pacific Coast, the managers of railroads are compelled to locate their terminal improvements in Oakland, because they further their own interests by so doing. The Central Pacific Railroad Company own seventy acres of land at the Oakland Point, used as a site for round-houses.
and work-shops. A planing mill has been in operation upwards of one year, and in it is prepared all the timber used in the construction and repair of bridges on the line of the road. The city has refrained from any attempt to open streets through this tract of land, at the request of the Company, upon representing that this ground is required for the purposes we have named, and in cutting it up by numerous streets its usefulness would be so impaired that it would be necessary for the Company to seek for accommodations elsewhere. The Company also owns an area of three hundred and fifty acres on the water front, extending from the former tract toward Goat Island, with a frontage of nearly half a mile on ship channel. The Company has recently made extensive purchases of real estate near the head of the San Antonio Creek, and it owns a large tract of hilly land a few miles south from Brooklyn, from which can be obtained an almost unlimited supply of earth for filling in and reclaiming marsh and tide lands. The wharf projecting from the Oakland Point is eleven thousand feet in length, and at the end of it there are twenty-six and one-half feet of water at low tide and thirty-three and one-half feet of water at high tide, upon which have been erected extensive depots, railroad offices, warehouses, and ample facilities for the storage of grain, etc.

The structure is built in the most firm and enduring manner, and nothing has been omitted that engineering and mechanical skill could suggest. The overland trains and the accommodation trains for San Jose, Sacramento, Stockton and Marysville are run over the track laid through First street, and the local trains are run over the Seventh street track. There is scarcely a half hour during the day that the rumble of passing trains cannot be heard.

The street railroad system of Oakland is very comprehensive, all of the streets of present or prospective importance being covered by a franchise, but there are only two companies that have expended any money or shown any signs of vitality. The Oakland Railroad Company's franchise covers Broadway, from the water front to the charter line, and thence by the most direct route to Berkeley. The road is built, and provided with rolling stock. It is five and one-half miles long. There are in use seven cars, and the receipts average two thousand dollars per month. Trips are made every fifteen minutes. There are fifteen cars that can be used when occasion requires, and fifty-three horses are kept in the Company's stables at Temescal. One thousand people daily pass over the road.

The Oakland, Brooklyn and Fruit Vale Railroad is completed from the crossing of Broadway and Seventh streets, in Oakland, to the central portion of the town of Brooklyn, a distance of two miles, and the business transacted is about sufficient to pay current expenses and interest on the investment. Trips are made every half hour.

The street railroads projected promise to be remunerative enterprises. The benefit of such improvements is very great, a population of several hundred persons having been drawn to the vicinity of Temescal through the influence of the Oakland Railroad. As communication between different parts of the city is made convenient and cheap, its growth will be accelerated, and the value of real estate in every locality will be enhanced.
RIDES, DRIVES, AND PLEASURE RESORTS.

The smooth macadamized streets within the limits of the city afford many miles of pleasant driving, and if there were no other resort, Oakland would be unusually attractive. There is a net-work of well made roads through the Oakland Valley centering at Berkeley. The Telegraph and San Pablo Avenues are the great drive-ways to the north of the city, and from them radiate numerous roads that lead into the hills. A fashionable and beautiful drive is that leading to Piedmont Springs, five miles from Oakland. From the Piedmont Springs Hotel, which offers every attraction for the comfort and enjoyment of its patrons, "perhaps the finest and most complete view of the Bay and its surroundings is obtained, while the "Bushy Dell" hard by, a ravine filled with a luxuriant growth of shrubbery and trees, is a most delightful and romantic spot, with excellent made walks running through it. In this dell the Sulphur Springs are situated, the waters of which are strongly impregnated with sulphur, magnesia and iron. They have medicinal properties of great value. No place of resort can be more favorably recommended to the notice of our Eastern visitors, while the city man out of health will find them very conveniently situated." From Piedmont there are good roads running through the mountains, and there is a labyrinth of pleasant drives. The mountain scenery is very fine, and it is difficult to realize that so great a change can be found in a half hour's ride from Oakland.

The drive-way on the eastern bank of Lake Merritt is also a fashionable resort. The system of roads in Brooklyn is quite complete, and the visitor can follow any road that he may observe without danger of being led into an unpleasant or dangerous locality. The most important place of public resort, especially on Sundays, is Badger's Central Park, (in Brooklyn) where there are highly ornamented grounds, a large pavilion for dancing, and all of the attractions ordinarily found at public gardens. That the excellent roads in and around Oakland are appreciated by visitors, is attested by the fact that Oakland has six large livery stables, all of them doing a prosperous business.

BUILDING IMPROVEMENTS.

The buildings erected in Oakland during the year ending June 30th, 1872, have been numerous and costly. One firm of contractors, for instance, Messrs. Power & Ough, have transacted business to the amount of $120,000. We will enumerate only some of the more important improvements. The Church of the Immaculate Conception is described elsewhere. The High School building is at the corner of Market and West Twelfth streets: The main building is 75x80 feet square, and the extreme depth, including projections for stairs, is 108 feet and the extreme width is 84 feet. The whole is surmounted by a curved French roof, the deck of which is surrounded by an iron railing. The elevation of the main building is 57 feet, and the railing of the tower is just 100 feet above the ground. The first and second stories are each 18 feet in the clear, and the third or hall story is 22 feet. The main hall, on the first floor, entered from Market street, is 81 feet long and 23 feet wide. The building contains four rooms, 27x36; four class rooms, 27x30; two class rooms, 22x30; one library room, 12x20; and numerous halls, teachers’ rooms and wardrobes, and when completed will have a hall 73x81 3/4 feet, equal in beauty to any one in the State. The front stairs are five, and the rear stairs are four feet wide, and the tower is ten feet square. The building is heated by two of Chilson’s hot air furnaces, connecting with all the halls and class rooms in the building by double pipes, thereby insuring safety against fire, and economy of fuel. The building is further provided against fire by a water pipe in front and rear, to which a hose pipe can be attached to each story. The cost of the property has been—for the lot, $7,500; for the building, $28,106.22; for fences, planking yard, sheds, etc., $1,770; total, $37,376.22. The lowest bid for the completion of the hall story was $10,800, and the highest $2,650.

E. C. Sessions, Esq., has erected a two-story fire-proof building on the southeast corner of Broadway and Twelfth streets, having a frontage of 100 feet on Broadway. Adjoining, and appearing to be a part of it, is Remillard’s building, with a frontage of 25 feet on Broadway. The cost of these improvements was $46,000.

Wm. Benitz’ building is a massive two-story brick structure, on the northeast corner of Broadway and Tenth streets, having a frontage of 100 feet on Broadway, and worth $40,000.

James Canning’s building is a two-story brick, on the corner of Broadway and Thirteenth streets, worth 30,000. This, Sessions’ and Benitz’ buildings are used for business purposes; each has a deep and airy basement; the lower stories are occupied as stores, and the rooms in the upper stories of Benitz’ and Sessions’ buildings are rented as offices.

The elegant residence of Rodmond Gibbons, near the corner of Center and Seventh streets, is worth upwards of $25,000.

Dr. Samuel Merritt has erected six large and elegant dwellings on his tract, north of Fourteenth street, and east of Alice street, worth in the aggregate, $75,000. These buildings have been sold to various parties by Dr. Merritt, who had in previous years erected numerous costly dwelling houses in the same locality.

C. P. Marsh has a $12,000 residence, at the corner of Castro and Eighth streets.

Gen. A. L. Page has nearly completed a $14,000 residence on San Pablo avenue. Calvin O. Brigham has nearly finished a $10,000 building on the corner of Oak and Eleventh streets, and A. K. P. Harmon has erected a $16,000 dwelling on Webster street near Twenty-second. These are but a moderate proportion of the valuable buildings that have been erected during the year. A large number of dwellings, worth from $2,000 to $5,000, have been built in all parts of the city. After deducting for work done at the planing mills for places other than Oakland, it is estimated that for buildings in the city the mill bills have amounted to $225,000. The mill work is twenty per cent. of the cost of an ordinary dwelling house, of the class erected in Oakland. We might infer, therefore, that the approximate value of the buildings erected last year is in the neighborhood of one million one hundred thousand dollars, except so far as the estimate may be varied by the nature of the fire-proof buildings on Broadway, which might slightly increase these figures.

The progress of Oakland, for the past year, compares favorably with San Francisco, and in proportion to her wealth and population Oakland is far ahead of any other city in California.

MANUFACTURING ENTERPRISES.

The advantages of Oakland as a manufacturing center are very great, and must, in due time, command attention. The city is connected with the general railroad system of the country, and is also accessible by water, so that goods can be exported by railroad or by sea-going vessels. An attempt has been made to establish smelting works for the reduction of silver ores, but the City Council has, by ordinance, prohibited such establishments, and they cannot be erected within the limits of the city. It was feared that the smoke and gases that would be generated therefrom would be injurious to the health of the people, and cause serious damage to the best interests of the place. The manufacturing establishments in Oakland are few in number, but the business transacted is quite respectable in volume.

The Pioneer Planing Mills were started in the year 1863, and in March, 1868, were purchased by Blethen & Terry, the present owners. The business consists in the manufacture of sashes, doors and blinds, and in furnishing such mill-work as is required in house-building. There are constantly employed twenty-five men, and the monthly receipts average $5,000. The mills are located on the south side of First street, between Broadway and Washington streets, and contain the most valuable and serviceable machinery. The warehouse and offices are upon the opposite side of First street.

The Oakland Planing Mills were built by Burnham, Standeford & Co., and have been in operation since February, 1869, the firm-name remaining the same. Forty persons are employed, and the monthly amount of business transacted will average $7,000. The buildings are on the corner of Washington and First streets, and contain all the machinery required in the manufacture of doors and sashes, house trimmings, &c.

The Pacific Lumber and Mill Company is a corporation having its principal place of business at the Oakland Point. The capital stock is divided into five thousand five hundred shares, of which four thousand five hundred shares have been issued; $45 per share having been paid in, so that the capital invested amounts to $202,500. The assets of the Company consist of the land, buildings and machinery at the Oakland Point, which cost $77,000, and two thousand acres of timber land in San Mateo County, which cost $40,000; a flume from that land to Pigeon Point, seven miles long, and costing $35,000; a large saw-mill on the San Mateo property, which cost $30,000; a wharf and warehouse at Pigeon Point costing $20,000, and personal property worth $5,000. The liabilities amount to $25,000, and are principally due to the Directors. At the mill at the Point there are employed regularly fifty men, and at times double that number are required. The company transacts a large amount of business in Oakland, but fills numerous orders from all parts of the State. The Directors are as follows:

J. W. Pearson, President, M. D. Townsend, Treasurer,
W. A. Bolinger, Secretary, P. M. McLaren, Purchasing Agent.

The General Superintendent in Oakland is P. R. Cunningham; and at Pigeon Point, Collins Crane.

The Venus Flouring Mills are located on Third street, south side, between Broadway and Franklin streets, and are owned by Carrick & Warner. The mills contain two run of stones, and have a capacity of 100 barrels of flour per day. The line of the Central Pacific Railroad is but two blocks distant, so that the products of the San Joaquin Valley can be brought almost to the doors of the mill by rail. The proximity to the wharves is another advantage of the location, rendering it convenient to receive grain from the small vessels that navigate the Bay.

There are in the city numerous minor establishments deserving of passing notice. Adjoining the Oakland Planing Mills is Blair's stair-building shop, in which is prepared nearly all of the stair-building required in the city. In the same block is Scoville's machine shop, for the manufacture and repair of carriages, wagons, and farming implements.

The Oakland Tannery, located on the Bay shore, about two miles north of the old charter line, is owned by Wm. Watts. The specialty is the manufacture of the finer kinds of calfskin, for boots and shoes, and the principal market for which is in San Francisco.

POPULATION, 1870 and 1872.

The Federal Census of 1870 placed the population of the township of Oakland at 11,104, divided as follows: Native, 6,940; foreign, 4,164; or white, 10,142; colored, 55; Chinese, 906; Indian, 1. Of this aggregate, 10,500 are declared the population of the city, and the remainder, 600, represent the township outside the Charter limits. No official classification of the sexes and ages has been as yet published, and it is therefore impossible to compare the above figures with the returns of the school census of 1871 and 1872 and the data collected during the progress of the canvass for the present volume. In 1869, the total number of children of 15 years and under, according to the school census, was 2,144; 1870, 2,628; 1871, 2,952; 1872, 3,761.

The increase of children from July, 1870, to July, 1872, according to these returns, is 1,133, from which should be deducted 300, (the estimated number added to the School Census from a part of Temescal) leaving 833, or thirty-two per cent. This rate must not be taken as an average for the entire population, from the fact that the element over twenty does not increase in the same ratio as those under that age.

The number of names on the poll list for the present year is 2,800. The number of votes cast at the election of 1871 was: Oakland, 1,260; Point,
The following table has been compiled from the above and other reliable data collected during the progress of the canvass for the present volume. Attention is respectfully directed to the figures contained therein, and the aggregate derived therefrom:

Total population, City of Oakland, July 1st, 1872...... 12,011

This aggregate, after deducting therefrom 1,000 as the population of a part of Temescal recently added to the limits of the city, and compared with the returns of the Federal census of 1870, (10,500) shows a gain in two years of 511, or less than five per cent.; while the school census, which includes nearly forty per cent. of the population, shows a gain of 833, or thirty-two per cent. This discrepancy can be accounted for only upon the theory that a part of the township population residing outside of the corporate limits was included in the returns of the city, or that the enumeration was absolutely inaccurate. This must be assumed, because the school census shows a regular and proportionate increase. It is taken annually by some competent citizen of Oakland, and as the amount of school money to be received from the State and County depends upon the number of children, there is the strongest motive to make the returns as large as the facts warrant.

In support of the assumption that residents of the outside districts were included in the returns of the city, the fact is referred to, that at the general election in 1871, the precinct of Temescal returned 329 votes, which properly represent a population of 1974, by allowing one vote to each six of population, about the proportion of Alameda county, and the usual estimate for permanently settled agricultural districts; but according to the returns of the Federal census, the population was only 604. That over one-half of the population were voters is the conclusion to be drawn, and it is so obviously incorrect as to throw discredit upon the entire returns. If these deductions are correct, the population of the city of Oakland, August, 1870, was 9,130, and not 10,500, as reported by the Federal census.

METEOROLOGICAL

The only meteorological observations made with regularity in Oakland have been made by John Ross, Esq., to whom we are indebted for our information upon this subject. The total rainfall for the last four seasons has been as follows:

1868-69 ........................................ 20 69-100 inches.
1869-70 ........................................ 19 58-100 "
1870-71 ........................................ 12 16-100 "
1871-72 ........................................ 32 69-100 "

Mr. Ross gives the results of his observation on other points, as follows:

The actual amount of rain that fell in San Francisco during the above named periods is difficult to determine, as the two records that have been kept differ very widely. For instance, there is a discrepancy of 7 20-100 inches in the records of Mr. Tennent and Mr. Ewing; the one observer making the total rainfall in San Francisco some two inches in excess of what it was in Oakland, and the other about four inches less. The difference in temperature between Oakland and San Francisco is more marked than in the assumed difference in the rainfall, especially in the spring, summer and autumn. The temperature of the winter months is more uniform. For instance, on June 7th, 1872, the temperature for Oakland was 92° Fahrenheit, and at San Francisco it was only 70° Fahrenheit. The following week, the thermometer showed a difference of 15 degrees in favor of Oakland. The winter temperature rarely falls below 26° Fahrenheit, and it seldom reaches that figure. On one or two occasions, Mr. Ross has observed it as low as 24°, and on two nights—and two nights only—it reached 22°.

Assuming the population, December 31st, 1870, at 10,000, and December 31st, 1871, at 11,000, gives a mortality of 1 to every 82 of the population for the years 1870-71, and of 1 to every 102 for the year 1871-72. The number of births recorded for the year 1871 and 1872, is 179; an increase of indigenous population of 67. Subtracting the number of deaths by accident, tubercular diseases, and those of children under five years, (a large proportion of which generally result from negligence or ignorance) would give a yearly mortality of 1 in 216 for 1871-72.

Epidemic and endemic diseases are of rare occurrence; inflammatory diseases are of a mild character.

PUBLIC LIBRARIES.

In addition to the library connected with the University of California, which comprises 4,651 volumes, and several smaller collections belonging to educational institutions, there are in the city the Oakland and Odd Fellows’ Libraries, each of which contains a valuable selection of works in the different departments of modern literature, to which additions of the new and standard publications of the day are made as rapidly as circumstances will permit. Arrangements are in progress to secure the organization of another library, under the auspices of the Masonic Fraternity, and from the character of those engaged in the movement, there is but little doubt of its final success.

OAKLAND LIBRARY, corner Washington and Twelfth streets. The Oakland Library Association was organized on the fifth day of March, 1868, by a meeting of the citizens of Oakland called for that purpose. The first officers (elected April 27th, 1868) were: President, Samuel Merritt; Vice-President, W. H. Glascock; Treasurer, A. C. Henry; Recording Secretary, William C. Little; Corresponding Secretary, George Jones, Pullman & Co., 118 Sansom St., S. F., Assortment Pipes and Stems.

The rooms of the association were originally located in Broadway Block, where they remained until September, 1871, when they were removed to the present location. The library was first opened to the public January 1st, 1869. By the liberality of a few of the citizens of Oakland, the association was presented, in 1869, with a valuable lot on the corner of Washington and Twelfth streets, upon which has been recently erected a commodious library building, admirably adapted to the purposes to which it is dedicated, and an ornament to the gentlemen under whose fostering care the affairs of the institution have been conducted. Value of the building and lot, $15,600.

The library contains over 2,500 volumes, exclusive of serial publications. Increase since October, 1871, 230 volumes. Twenty-two magazines and periodicals, and the leading newspapers of the day, are regularly received, and placed on file for the use of the members and their friends. Average number of volumes drawn per month is fifteen hundred, of which about sixty per cent. are works of fiction. Number of members, 345. Annual dues, $6. Rooms open from 10 o'clock A. M. to 9:30 o'clock P. M.

ODD FELLOWS' LIBRARY.—Rooms, Odd Fellows' Hall. The Odd Fellows' Library Association was organized August 12th, 1869. Officers, 1872, are : Board of Directors—C. J. Robinson, G. E. Sherman, B. C. Austin, J. C. Holland, William Clayton, J. E. Benton, W. L. McKay, Joseph Lufkin and J. E. Ingols; Librarian, John Goss.

This library contains 1,450 volumes, of works well selected from the different departments of modern literature. A careful selection of the best periodicals and the leading newspapers of the day are regularly received, and filed for the use of visitors. Increase of library during the past year, two hundred and forty-four volumes. Number of volumes taken out during the same period, four thousand four hundred and ninety-two. The library rooms are open from three to six and from seven to nine o'clock P. M., except during the summer, when the hours are, half-past three to nine o'clock P. M.

The County Board of Supervisors are ex-officio directors of the Infirmary. The buildings are inexpensive; the original cost of the main edifice—which is of wood—having been $5,000. Numerous fruit trees have been planted, and the extensive grounds are cultivated by the convalescent patients and other inmates of the institution. Dr. C. S. Coleman is Hospital Physician and C. Cadwell is Steward. There are thirty three patients in the infirmary.
PUBLIC SCHOOLS.*

The past history and present condition of the public schools in the City of Oakland are detailed at considerable length in the carefully prepared report of the City Superintendent, Frederick M. Campbell, Esq., to the Board of Education, for the year ending June 30th, 1872. From this document we compile the following information concerning the public schools.

The first public school in the city was organized in July, 1853, with sixteen pupils. The teacher was Miss H. J. Jayne, sister of the present Police Judge, and now Mrs. Edson Adams. The building used was erected at a cost of one thousand dollars, and it is now occupied as an African church, having been removed from its original location at the corner of Clay and Fifth streets to the corner of Market and Seventh streets. This building afforded all the public school accommodation of Oakland until the year 1862. In May, of that year, the block of land bounded by Twelfth, Eleventh, Jefferson and Grove streets was purchased for nine hundred dollars, now worth at least forty thousand dollars. A small building was erected thereon, and school was opened in November of the same year. In August, 1865, the lot, 100 by 125, on the corner of Alice and Fifth streets, was purchased. The first grammar school was commenced in what is now the Lafayette Primary, in November, 1867. The Prescott School-house, at Oakland Point, was the next building erected, and it was occupied for the first time on January 4th, 1869. In August, of the same year, the primary school building, corner of Grove and Fifth streets, was formally occupied. The High School building, on the corner of Market and Twelfth streets, was dedicated September 17th, 1871. In twenty years the department has increased from one building with sixteen pupils to buildings containing thirty-six rooms and fifteen hundred pupils. During the present year two additional buildings are to be erected.

The average monthly enrollment is 1,462. The average number belonging to the schools is 1,359. Average daily attendance, 1,266.

*Exclusive of building fund and interest on School Bonds outstanding June 30th, 1872.
During the month of May and the first week in June, 1872, were held the annual examinations for promotions. There were examined 1,263 pupils, of whom 737 were promoted.

In reference to the comparatively small number of promotions, the Superintendent says:

"Our department has grown very rapidly within the last year; families moving into our city from various portions of the State where the children have been necessarily deprived of the thorough drill in the lower grades, which the children living in cities where there are graded schools, as in our own city, have. These pupils are almost invariably found to be unequal in their attainments—well advanced in some branches and very deficient in others; so that while grading them correctly for some studies, it is often found to be too high for others. The examinations this year have also been more rigid than heretofore. Yet, while they were difficult, they were not unjust. The Superintendent is confident the results will be fully up to those attained in the San Francisco schools."

Vocal music is taught in all of the classes by their respective teachers.

Under the instructions of Mrs. J. E. Benton, the classes have made good progress in the study of drawing.

The Cosmopolitan School was started in 1870 as an experiment, with twenty pupils, and the services of Professor A. D. A. Champion were secured as teacher. The exercises are conducted in the French language, and the pupils show remarkable proficiency in their studies.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA.

The State Constitution requires that the Legislature shall maintain a university, but only a technical obedience was given to this section of the fundamental law of the State until the year 1863, when the Legislature passed a concurrent resolution accepting the donation of lands tendered to the State by Congress, for the endowment of a College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts. In March, 1866, the Legislature passed an Act to establish an "Agricultural, Mining and Mechanical Arts College."

The directors specified in that Act decided that the proposed college should be located in Alameda county, but did not designate the part in which it should be located. The College of California owned a tract of one hundred and sixty acres of land at Berkeley, five miles from Oakland, and in August, 1867, the Trustees passed a series of resolutions, proposing to donate this property to the University, and offering to give its entire assets to the State institution, provided the State should forthwith occupy the property, and organize and put into operation a University of California, which should include a college of Mines, of Agriculture, and an Academical College—all of the same grade, and with courses of instruction equal to those of Eastern colleges. The Directors of the Agricultural College accepted the offer, and received a conveyance of the property at Berkeley. In March, 1868, the Legislature passed the Act incorporating the State University, under which its affairs have ever since been conducted. The control of the institution is placed in the hands of the Board of Regents, constituted as follows:

His Honor Romualdo Pacheco, Lieutenant-Governor.

The University consists of five distinct and independent colleges, viz:
Four colleges of Arts, and one college of Letters, as follows:

1. A State College of Agriculture,
2. A State College of Mechanic Arts,
3. A State College of Mines,
4. A State College of Civil Engineering.
5. A State College of Letters.

Colleges of Arts.

The full course of instruction in each college embraces all appropriate studies, and continues for at least four years.

The University possesses apparatus procured from Europe valued at $30,000, for the use of the chemical and other scientific experiments. The students are organized into four military companies, under the State law, and are drilled twice each week. Professor Welcker and Professor Soule, graduates from West Point, have charge of the military instruction of the pupils. The exercises are conducted in the buildings erected by the College of California, on Twelfth street, and the State owns the four blocks of land between Twelfth, Fourteenth, Franklin and Harrison streets. Provision is made by law for five scholarships, of $300 per annum each, to be given to members entering the fourth class, after a competitive examination.

The Legislature, at the session of 1871–2, passed Acts appropriating $6,000 per month for the pay of professors and tutors, and $300,000 for the building fund. The original endowments of the University were valued at $420,000—without including 150,000 acres of land, but a small part of which has been located. A contract has been let to D. Jordan, for $126,000, for the completion of the University building commenced at Berkeley in 1870. An abundant supply of water has been introduced throughout the buildings and grounds of the University. When all the improvements projected are completed, the University site will become one of the most attractive spots in the State.

The number of students, as given by the Secretary in his report to the Legislature in February, 1872, was 353, classified as follows:—In the University proper, 147; attendants upon University lectures, 59; fifth class, 149.

From December 12th, 1869, to January 1st, 1872, the receipts were $283,720.33, and the disbursements amounted to $270,304.58, leaving a balance on hand, at that time, of $13,415.75.
INSTITUTION FOR THE DEAF AND DUMB AND THE BLIND.

This institution, situated at the base of the foot-hills, four and a half miles north of Oakland, and in immediate proximity to the State University, was originally located in San Francisco. It was started—and for some time sustained—through the exertions of the benevolent women of that city. The school was opened April 30th, 1860, with three pupils. As the institution grew in numbers, State aid was obtained, and in 1865, it had increased to such a degree as to justify its entire organization under State auspices.

A law was passed March 3d, 1866, "providing for a removal of the school from the limited and inconvenient quarters in San Francisco"—for enlarging the scope of its beneficence—for vesting in the State the title to all property held by the institution, and providing for a Board of Directors, to be elected by the Legislature. Suitable appropriations were made to carry out the purpose of the Act.

After long and patient examinations, the Commissioners decided upon the present location. Plans—drawn by Messrs. Wright & Sanders, of San Francisco—were adopted, and the buildings now occupied were erected.

The ground was broken June 29th, 1867, and the corner stone was laid September 26th, of the same year, and the new building was occupied for school purposes October 20th, 1869.

The institution is built of stone—is three stories in height—having a total frontage of 264 feet, a depth of 140 feet, and the height to the top of the spire is 160 feet. It is admirably planned for the purpose of such an establishment.

The whole cost of building, grounds, shops, heating apparatus, laundry, and the furniture, has been about $180,000. The institution has a present capacity for about 150. During the year 1871, 102 persons received instruction.

The benefits of the institution are free to all resident deaf and dumb, or blind, persons, between the ages of six and twenty-one, who are of sound mind, free from contagious or offensive diseases, and of correct moral habits.

It is not an asylum, in any sense of the term, as its inmates are received only for purposes of education.

The names of the Board of Directors are:

J. Mora Moss, President.
John C. Hays, Vice-President.
J. E. Nicholson, Secretary.
C. J. Brenham, Auditor.
Harry Linden, Treasurer.

The Principal, to whom all letters of inquiry should be addressed, is Warring Wilkinson, M. A., assisted by the following corps of teachers:

Amasa Pratt,
M. B. Clark,
C. T. Wilkinson.
L. C. Tuck,
Henry Frank.

The institution is open to visitors on all days except Saturday and Sunday.

PRIVATE EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

CALIFORNIA MILITARY ACADEMY.

This military institution, opened January 9th, 1865, is the first of the kind that has been established on this coast. Rev. D. McClure is the proprietor and Principal. The academic staff is composed of nine experienced teachers.

In the academic department, well defined and extensive courses of study are pursued in the English branches, ancient and modern languages, natural science, mathematics, and commercial knowledge—such as will prepare students for college or business. The institution is also organized as a military post, and it is obligatory upon every student to attend the daily military drill, and perform the duties of a cadet—which do not interfere with hours of study. There were 131 students in attendance during the last year.

LOCATION.—The location on Telegraph Avenue, nearly one mile north of the City of Oakland, is one that affords the cadets a scene of rare beauty. From the rise of ground upon which the buildings are situated, an extensive view is had of Oakland and the surrounding valleys, of the Bay and City of San Francisco, and of the Ocean through the Golden Gate. The Academy may be reached by the Telegraph Avenue cars.

BUILDINGS.—In location, style and general adaptation to the purposes of education, they are unsurpassed by any similar institution in the State. Every care has been taken to secure the best arrangements for the comfort, health and refinement of the cadets. A large two-story armory has been erected, which affords ample room for in-door recreation and drill during stormy weather. To increase the usefulness of the Academy, and to provide for the numerous applicants who have been refused for want of room, during the past year, it is proposed to extend the main building eighty feet to the north.

DESIGN OF THE INSTITUTION.—It is the fixed purpose of the Principal, and those associated with him, to render the institution an efficient instrument for the symmetrical development and discipline of the mind, and the formation of a good physical constitution. Ease and grace of manners, kindness and courtesy in social intercourse, are matters of constant oversight. That education is more anxiously sought for the pupils, which has special reference to the best practical preparations for the duties of this life, and also to that moral and religious culture which will fit them for the life to come.

MILITARY.—The military system of drilling and discipline has been adopted to secure physical culture, promptness, decision of movement, erect carriage, submission to constituted authority, presence of mind, ability to govern, and the repression of the tendency to rudeness, natural to an assembly of boys. This department is thoroughly organized, affording an opportunity for obtaining a complete knowledge of the duties of... the soldier and the officer. The full routine of a Military Post is constantly observed, with its Headquarters, Quarter-master, Commissary, and the other Departments. It is obligatory upon every cadet to attend the daily military exercises as a regular part of the Academic Course. Physical deformity and sickness are the only grounds of excuse.

The Academy is furnished with muskets and equipments suitable for the use of cadets, and a large armory for in-door drill and bayonet exercises.

The Company, Battalion and Skirmish Drills are conducted according to Upton's Tactics.

The real object of military discipline in the Academy is not to make soldiers only of the students, but to give them strength of body, vigor of constitution, and manliness of bearing; to fit them not merely for the field of battle, but for all employments and departments of life which demand vigor, energy and endurance. The effects of the regular, daily, systematic drill, under competent officers, in restoring to health and strength delicate, dyspeptic and debilitated youths would be alone sufficient to assure us of its high utility. The promptness, accuracy, and general habits of order and precision to which cadets are trained, together with the steady cultivation of fidelity, honesty and courtesy, as essential to military excellence, have also been found of incalculable value in fitting them for all professional and business pursuits.

The military drill does not encroach upon study hours, but occupies time usually given to recreation, which is often worse than wasted by students.

The Legislature of the State of California passed an Act February 20th, 1872, in which provision is made:

1. To commission the Commandant of this Academy as Major in the National Guard, of California; and—
2. To furnish the cadets with arms and accoutrements.

Uniform.—The "fatigue" coat is a close-fitting gray cloth jacket, with black trimmings. The "dress" suit is a gray cloth frock coat, with black cloth cuffs, collar, and shoulder piece extending from the seam of the collar to the end of the shoulder. Cadets are required to wear the uniform during the term time, except when visiting their homes—then it is optional.

Passes.—No cadet is permitted to leave the Academy grounds unaccompanied by one of the Academic Staff, unless he has obtained a pass, stating the place to which he is going, the hour of departure, and the time he is required to return. A violation of this pass, in any respect, is considered a breach of confidence, and deprives the cadet of a pass for a length of time depending upon the circumstances of the case.

Cadet Officers.—The appointment of every cadet officer of the corps is made by the Superintendent, and is based upon his qualifications as a student and a soldier. He must have a high standing in the following particulars:
1. Deportment and Academic scholarship.
2. Theoretical and practical military knowledge.
3. Natural ability to command.

This basis of appointment has been in operation during the present year. Previous appointments were made more with reference to military knowledge than deportment; and did not, therefore, represent the most distinguished scholars and soldiers, as is the case with the present appointments.

In the choice of officers, preference is given to members of the first and second classes in the Academic Department.

GRADUATION.—Cadets who have honorably completed the Academic Course of Study will receive a certificate of graduation at the close of the academic year.

MILLS’ SEMINARY.

The Young Ladies’ Seminary of Benicia was founded in 1857, and after various vicissitudes of fortune, became the private property of Rev. C. T. Mills, in 1865. Under his control, the school became exceedingly prosperous, and the old and inferior buildings were no longer serviceable. It was decided to remove the seminary to a tract of land near Fruit Vale, in Brooklyn Township, and in June, 1870, work was commenced upon the new building. On April 8th, 1871, the structure was completed, and accepted from the contractor. From one of the circulars issued, we copy the following description:

“The building is an imposing structure, presenting a front of 218 feet, with a wing of 130 feet, and is two stories in height, surmounted by a Mansard roof. The outline is well broken; the center and end wings project well forward; the main building, somewhat higher than the wings, is surmounted by a cupola, from which there is a splendid view of the surrounding country. The great size of the structure, its fine proportions and details, give it an air of solidity, as well as an inviting and home-like look.

“The seminary is intended to accommodate about 175 pupils. On the main floor are parlors, reading-room, library, and recitation-rooms. In the east wing are two very large school-rooms, besides a parlor, several rooms for recitations, music, and the various purposes of the seminary. In the west wing are the apartments of the principals; adjoining them is a suite of rooms intended for use in case of sickness. The upper stories are devoted to sleeping apartments. Each room—arranged for two pupils—has a toilet apartment off from it, with stationary wash-bowl, and each room is lighted with gas. The bath-rooms, &c., are ample and complete. Every room is frescoed neatly and handsomely; those of the first story, the parlors, reception and school-rooms, dining-hall and music-rooms being very elaborately decorated, making them remarkably attractive and cheerful. The dining-hall, a fine room thirty-six by seventy feet, and the kitchen, are connected with the main building by a corridor, and the laundry, servants’ room, &c., are apart from the main building. The halls are very spacious, and stairways numerous and ample, special pains to secure safety in that particular, in case of fire, having been taken. Fire-extinguishers of the most approved kind have been procured, and placed in proper position in the building. Under the building is a fine, large cellar. Every effort has been made to secure light, proper ventilation, and sunshine. The entire building is lighted with gas made on the premises. Inside blinds have been provided for the windows."

An Art-room is now being added to the building. Rev. C. T. Mills is Principal, and Mrs. S. L. Mills, Associate Principal. They are aided by a corps of twenty-two teachers.

The attendance for the year ending May, 1872, in the several departments, was as follows:

- Senior class ............................................. 17
- Senior middle class ..................................... 17
- Junior middle class ..................................... 47
- Junior .................................................................. 67
- Preparatory ...................................................... 98

Whole number of students ........................................... 246

In the annual catalogue for 1872, the proprietor says:

"Though the Mills' Seminary, for the present, is private property, the hope and purpose is to make it a permanent institution. It is the desire of the proprietor, as well as those who have so generously aided him in the work, that it shall be so arranged—and eventually so endowed—that, like Mt. Holyoke, or Vassar, it shall be self-perpetuating. The hope is, that, adding to its resources and appliances until it shall become, in every respect, all that can be desired, and depending upon no individual life, it shall continue to be a fountain of knowledge and a blessed influence long after those who have aided in the enterprise have finished their work on earth."

The next term of the seminary will commence August 2d, 1872.

PACIFIC THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The Pacific Theological Seminary was founded in 1869, in San Francisco. The buildings erected by the Female College of the Pacific, on Academy Hill, were purchased by the Seminary, and possession taken in June, 1871, at which time the regular exercises of this seminary were commenced. The value of the property is $50,000. Last year there were seven students in the regular classes. Three young men graduated in May, 1872.

The Trustees of the seminary are as follows:

- Rev. A. L. Stone, D. D., Dea. L. B. Benchley,
- Rev. I. E. Dwinelle, D. D., Dea. T. B. Bigelow,
- Rev. J. A. Benton, D. D., Dea. E. P. Flint,
- Rev. Eli Corwin, L. C. Gunn, M. D.,
- Rev. W. C. Pond, J. M. Haven, Esq.,
REV. A. L. STONE, D. D., President of the Board.
REV. W. C. POND, Secretary of the Board.
DEA. L. B. BENCHLEY, Treasurer of the Board.

There is a visiting committee, composed of the following persons:

Rev. Eli Corwin, Rev. T. H. Rouse,
Rev. J. C. Holbrooke, D. D., S. S. Smith,

The regular course of study extends over three years, but there are courses adapted to two years, or to one year. The seminary is under the auspices of the Congregational Church, but the course of study is not biased in favor of that denomination, some of the students belonging to other churches. Rev. J. A. Benton, D. D., is Professor of Sacred Literature, and Rev. George Mooar, D. D., is Professor of Theology.

The year consists of but one term. It begins with the third Thursday in August, and ends with the fourth Thursday in May. There will be a recess from the 20th of December to the 3d of January.

Credible evidence of piety, membership in some Evangelical Christian Church, a collegiate education, or such other literary and scientific attainments as promise a fair degree of usefulness, will entitle all young men to the advantages of this seminary.

Relative to expenses, the Trustees have the following in their circular:

"There will be no charge for tuition, rent of rooms, or use of furniture. The Trustees will, so far as practicable, furnish text-books and reference books free to those who are in need; themselves being the judges of the necessity. Those who are so disposed can live very economically in Oakland or San Francisco. It is thought that one dollar a day will meet all the absolutely necessary expenses of an economical person; fifty per cent. more could be used to advantage; a hundred per cent. more would not be deemed very extravagant.

"The American Education Society will render aid to the pupils of this seminary who are especially needy, and who take the full course of three years. The amount bestowed will be $80 or $100 a year (in currency) to each beneficiary."

OAKLAND SEMINARY.

The Oakland Seminary was founded by Mr. George M. Blake, in Oakland, November 8th, 1858. In October, 1863, the present building was occupied by the seminary classes. It is on Washington street, west side, between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, the premises comprising an entire block.

The seminary was under the control of the Rev. E. B. Walsworth during the past year, but Mrs. Blake has again assumed charge, assisted by Mrs. M. A. Knox and Miss Emma Janes, and with a corps of efficient and experienced teachers, the seminary will continue to enjoy its former prestige.
GOLDEN GATE ACADEMY.

This academy is a school for boys, and is located at the Pacific Theological Seminary. Darius P. Sackett is Principal. All pupils must board at the school, and the circular announces that—

"It is the aim of the Faculty to furnish, as near as may be, an equivalent for the well-regulated Christian fireside. In this endeavor, they receive most valued aid from Professor Mooar and family, who live in the building."

CONVENT OF OUR LADY OF THE SACRED HEART.

This institution is for the education of girls, and is located on Webster street, near the head of Lake Merritt. It was dedicated in 1868. The teachers are "Sisters of the Holy Name of Jesus and Mary," who came from Canada for the purpose of acting as instructors in this school. The funds for purchasing the grounds and erecting the buildings were raised through the personal exertions of Rev. Father King, of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, (formerly St. Mary's Catholic Church.) The curriculum of studies resembles that of other schools for the education of young ladies.

ST. JOSEPH'S ACADEMY.

This academy is located on the corner of Jackson and Fifth streets, and is conducted by the "Christian Brothers," Brother Gustavus acting as Principal. It was opened July 5th, 1870, and is a prosperous and well managed school for the education of boys.

PRIVATE SCHOOLS.

The Linden Lane Boarding School, for the education of boys, is located on the lane after which it is named, near Telegraph Avenue, and is owned by D. C. Stone, A. M., who is Principal.

J. C. Hyde has a day and boarding school on the southwest corner of Harrison and Sixth streets, for boys.

Madame Bouillet has a boarding school for girls at the northwest corner of Franklin and Fifth streets.

There are several other small schools, taught in private parlors, in various parts of the city.

THE PRESS OF OAKLAND.

There are published in Oakland two daily newspapers, the News and the Transcript. The News, now owned by Gagan & Fairchild, was started in November, 1863, and for five years was the only paper published in the city. It is prosperous and growing, Republican in politics, and has kept pace with the growth and improvement of Oakland. The Transcript was started in April, 1868, and has changed ownership several times, the present proprietors being A. W. Bishop & Co., who have succeeded John Scott, under whose management it had been conducted for several years. It is Republican in politics. The University Echo is a monthly paper published under the auspices of the Durant Rhetorical Society, an organization composed of students of the State University. The proprietors of the Transcript are also owners of the Masonic Mirror, a journal issued monthly in San Francisco. During the history of the city very many unsuccessful attempts have been made to found other periodicals, entailing the loss of a large amount of capital.

any unredeemed bonds issued under the Act of April 30th, 1855. These bonds have twenty years to run, and bear interest at seven per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, January and July. Provision is made for the interest by an annual tax on the assessable property of the city; and for the payment of the principal an additional tax, equal to one-half of the amount then outstanding, is authorized to be levied in each of the years 1876 and 1877.

School Bonds, 1868.—Amount $50,000. Authorized by Act March 13th, 1868. These bonds are redeemable at any time within ten years, and bear interest at ten per cent., payable annually in January. For the payment of the interest, an annual tax is authorized, and for the redemption of the principal, an additional tax not to exceed ten cents on each one hundred dollars of the assessable property of the city may be levied, and the amount derived therefrom shall constitute a Redemption Fund. Whenever the Fund amounts to one thousand dollars or more, it shall be appropriated to the liquidation of the bonds at the lowest rates (not more than par value) offered by the holders thereof. Should a balance remain, it shall be appropriated to the liquidation of bonds in the order of their issue, which, if not presented after due notice, the interest thereon shall cease. In each of the years 1875 and 1877, a tax is authorized, sufficient to pay one-half of the amount then outstanding.

Redeemable at any time within ten years, and bearing ten per cent. interest, payable quarterly in January, April, July, and October. In the event of this fund not being exhausted, after a stated time, the balance shall be appropriated to the payment, at par, of the bonds in the order of their issue, which, if not presented after due notice, the funds for the payment of the same shall remain in the Treasury, and the interest thereon cease from that date.

The Council are, in addition, authorized to raise annually, by taxation, a sum not to exceed five thousand dollars, to be applied to the same purpose. No definite action has as yet been taken by the Council to avail itself of these privileges, and no legislation having this end in view has been commenced.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The first attempt to establish a Fire Department in the City of Oakland was made in the early part of 1853, which resulted in the organization of two engine companies, the Empire and Washington, and the Oakland Hook and Ladder Company, and the election of John Scott as Chief Engineer. Three large cisterns, which still remain in use, were soon after constructed on Broadway between First and Fourth streets, to supply the engines with water, and the necessary apparatus was obtained to give efficiency to the operations of the department.
The apparatus then used by the Empire Company, a small New York side-stroke engine, purchased originally at a cost of $2,000, is now in the Santa Clara Fire Department, in good condition. This organization had but a short-lived existence. It was within a year disbanded, the property delivered over to the Council, and up to 1869, Oakland had little or no means of resisting the fiery element.

The present Department was organized March 13th, 1869, under the provisions of an ordinance approved February 4th, 1869, by the election of John C. Halley as Chief Engineer, and Thomas McGuire and George Taylor, Assistants, who succeeded John Scott, Chief, and John C. Halley and W. W. Moore, Assistants, acting under authority of a previous organization. The apparatus of the Department comprised a third class Amoskeag fire engine, purchased by the city, and a hose carriage procured by funds temporarily advanced by Col. John Scott. The succeeding officers elected in 1870, were: Miles Doody, Chief Engineer; George Taylor and G. W. Scribner, Assistants; who continued in office until the present incumbents were elected, January 16th, 1872.

The organization of the Department is at present composed of a Board of three Fire Commissioners, a Chief Engineer and two Assistants. The apparatus consists of an Amoskeag third-class steam engine, a Hook and Ladder truck, and three hose carriages. The steamer and one of the hose carriages are drawn by horses. An additional steam engine, one of the Silsby, (Seneca Falls, N. Y.) improved second class, has been ordered, which will, when received, afford additional facilities for the efficient workings of the Department.

Water for the use of the Department is obtained from thirteen hydrants, supplied by the works of the Contra Costa Water Co., and three cisterns. Two additional cisterns are now being built on Broadway street, which will, when finished, it is believed, furnish an ample quantity of water for the extinguishment of fires. It is proposed to construct a new engine and truck house, on the corner of Broadway and Fifth streets, at an expense of $5,000. This location is more central than the one now used at the City Hall grounds. The estimated value of the Department property March, 1872, was $14,713. Number of feet of hose, 2,100. Annual running expenses, (repairs and salaries) $3,500.

Officers.—Fire Commissioners, Q. A. Chase, J. J. Hanifin, V. P. Terry; Chief Engineer, George Taylor; Assistant Engineers, R. E. Harmon, George Farwell.

Phoenix Steam Engine Co., No. 1.—Location, City Hall grounds. Apparatus, an Amoskeag third class engine. Organized in 1869, by the election of J. James Kelley, Foreman; G. Lyons and E. F. Scott, Assistants. On the 24th of October, 1870, the Council declared the Company, for inefficiency, disbanded, and a new organization was formed a few days thereafter, with M. M. Howe, Foreman, (who acted until September, 1871, when William Trickle was elected); H. P. Meader and John Breen, Assistants. The succeeding officers are the present incumbents.

Officers.—Moses Russell, Foreman; George W. Markley, First Assistant; George Cole, Second Assistant; Jeremiah Tyrrell, Treasurer; Edward Lefort, Secretary; Jeremiah Tyrrell, Engineer, (salary, $720 per annum); Thomas Ennis, Driver, (salary, $600 per annum).

Relief Hook and Ladder Co., No. 1.—Location, City Hall grounds. Organized April 7th, 1870, by the election of the following officers: Perry Johnson, President; V. P. Terry, Foreman; R. E. Harmon, J. Orr, Assistants; John A. Whitcher, Secretary—who were succeeded by the present incumbents.

Officers.—Perry Johnson, President; Frederick Dunham, Foreman; E. G. Voorhies, W. T. Myles, Assistant Foremen; Perry Johnson, Treasurer; Abraham Heyman, Secretary.

Hose Co. No. 1.—Located at the City Hall grounds, attached to Phoenix Steam Engine Co. No. 1. Edward Leperle, Driver, (salary, $600 per annum).

An extra hose carriage is stationed at the Engine House, City Hall grounds. Also one at Oakland Point, supplied with the necessary hose for the protection of property in that vicinity. A complete fire apparatus belonging to the Central Pacific Railroad Company, consisting of a powerful locomotive, with a steam-pump attachment, a tank-car and coils of hose, is kept constantly in readiness at the Oakland Ferry Wharf, for duty, at any point between Niles Station and the wharf.

Police Telegraph.—Communication between the City Hall and prominent points throughout the city, is maintained by a line of telegraphic wire erected at the expense of Capt. F. B. Tarbett, of the Police Department. Its importance and value in facilitating the prompt workings of the Police and Fire Departments cannot be over-estimated.

Stations—City Hall, office of the Daily News on Seventh street near Broadway, and Wilson’s Saloon at Oakland Point. It is proposed to extend the line to Oakland Ferry Wharf, McClure’s Military Academy, and Tubbs’ Hotel, Brooklyn.
STREETS, SEWERAGE AND STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

As the soil within the tree limit of the city is sandy, traveling during the summer months was excessively unpleasant, and Oakland labored under this disadvantage until 1865. In December, 1864, it was decided to grade and macadamize Broadway from Fourth to Tenth streets. The work was done satisfactorily, but without particular reference to a grade, a slope from one end of the street to the other being the only matter that received attention. The experiment was so successful, that it soon became the established policy of the city to encourage this kind of improvement. The rock used is blue trap, obtained from quarries four miles from the city, and is laid at an average price of six and one-fourth cents per square foot. When the quarries are reached by tram-ways or street railroads, the cost should be considerably reduced. At the edges of the streets the rock is laid six inches thick, and in the center of the streets it is nine inches in thickness. Most of the streets are eighty feet in width. The sidewalks are eighteen feet wide, which leaves a driveway forty-four feet wide. From the improved streets, trees have been removed, so that there remain no impediments to travel; but the oaks have been spared as far as possible, the Council fully realizing the fact that these oaks are one of the chief attractions of the city.

From the beginning of the year 1855 to December 1st, 1868, streets aggregating a length of four miles had been graded and macadamized, costing $87,050.96. During the year ending December 1st, 1869, the length was three miles, and the cost $58,091.29. From the last named date until June 30th, 1872, the street improvements made have been as follows:

The sewers on Clay and on Franklin streets are not completed, and the figures for them are estimates.

The total amount of money expended in the grading and macadamizing of streets, the construction of sidewalks and sewers, as obtained from official sources, is as follows:

| Street improvements prior to December 1st, 1868 | $87,035.96 |
| Street improvements from December 1st, 1868, to December 1st, 1869 | $58,091.29 |
| Street improvements from December 1st, 1869, to June 30th, 1872 | $139,852.29 |
| Improvements in progress June 30th, 1872 | $40,500.00 |
| Sewers                                     | $33,597.57 |
| Total                                      | $359,077.11 |

The total length of macadamized streets is about seventeen miles, a few streets having been graded and macadamized at private expense. These figures tell more plainly than words of the energy and public spirit of the people of Oakland. The system of street lines and grades, of sewerage and general improvements, needs special mention. In April, 1869, the City Council selected a Board of Engineers, consisting of Geo. F. Allardt, Prof. Geo. Davidson, Geo. E. Gray and Milo Hoadley. It was required of these engineers to examine the plans and profiles that had been made by the then City Engineer, Wm. F. Boardman; to suggest changes, if any; to report a plan of street lines and grades, and a system of sewerage for the whole city; also, to adapt the surveys of the water front to the surveys of the city. This step was rendered necessary on account of the conflict concerning street lines, the entire absence of a system of sewerage, and a desire to have matters of such grave importance settled before the city should become densely populated, rendering changes difficult and expensive. The Board attended to the task assigned in a thorough and conscientious manner, and the result of their labors is embodied in a report presented to the City Council December 13th, 1869. The report was of great length, and was printed in convenient form and distributed among the people. The aggregate length of all the streets in the city is 105 miles. The highest ground in the city is at the intersection of Twelfth street and Broadway, which has an elevation of thirty-eight feet. In establishing grades it was the aim of the Board to follow nature as closely as possible, and along the streets that have subsequently been improved there is apparent but a trifling deviation from the natural surface. Grades were established for every street crossing.

The subject of sewerage was considered as an engineering problem, rather than as a sanitary question. It is recommended that at the proper time a main sewer be constructed from Lake Merritt along the eastern end of the city, following the northern bank of the Creek and debouching in the Bay, three and eighteen one-hundredths miles long. Also a main sewer from the intersection of Delger street with the head of the Lake, along Delger street to San Pablo Avenue, thence to Twenty-first street, thence to Market street, thence westerly to the Bay—being one and eighty-four one-hundredths miles long. These two main sewers are to be of sufficient size to carry off the drainage of all of the subordinate sewers in the city. As the fall obtainable will not be sufficient to create a current that will remove this sewage matter, advantage will be taken of the tide water confined in Lake Merritt. Lateral or street sewers are to be of stone or asphaltum pipe, and are not designed to receive surface drainage. The figures we have given show that but a limited number of sewers have been constructed. The city is not thickly built; there are large areas of unoccupied land, and in but few localities is there a pressing demand for their construction; the capacity of the earth to neutralize and decompose the sewage matter being ample. As buildings increase in number, and the necessity for sewerage grows, the objections to such improvements that are now so common will speedily disappear.

The question of street lines was the most complicated that came before the Board. There was a marked discrepancy between the surveys that had been made by previous engineers, and fences had been placed and improvements located to suit the fancy of individual property owners. To insist upon arbitrary lines would be onerous and unnecessary, and the Board made an adjustment of errors so as to cause but little interference with property lines, and at the same time preserve the uniformity of the streets. Though the streets are said to be eighty feet wide, most of them exceed those figures by a few inches. This was the most delicate part of the work assigned this Board, and the wisdom of its action has been abundantly attested during the two years and a half it has been recognized by the Council.

The water front is laid out so as to conform to the surveys made by the Water Front Company, and the plans have been approved by all parties.
After this report had been carefully considered, the City Council passed ordinances adopting its recommendations.

The workings of the law* for the opening of new streets have not been satisfactory. Proceedings have been instituted to open many streets in the western part of the city; but so far Eighth street only has been opened to the public, and that only by means of a compromise.

In the belief that it is the cheapest and best method of keeping macadamized streets in repair, the Council has lately contracted for daily sprinkling upon them forty-one thousand gallons of fresh water.

MISCELLANEOUS STATISTICS.

HUNTINGTON, HOPKINS & CO., Wholesale Hardware and Iron, Corner Bush and Market, S. F.
First Baptist.

Location, southeast corner of Fourteenth and Brush streets. Rev. T. C. Jamison, Pastoral Supply; residence, southeast corner of Seventh and Oak streets.

This church was organized in December, 1854, under the labors of Rev. E. J. Willis, missionary.

The first house of worship was dedicated December, 1854, and was the second Protestant house of worship completed in this city. It was located at the corner of Fifth and Jefferson streets, and cost with the land about $2,000.

Mr. Willis' pastorate terminated in June, 1856. The church was without a pastor for about a year. In May, 1857, Rev. Harvey Gilbert began to preach, and four months later, was settled as pastor. He resigned in December, 1858, and was succeeded in April, 1859, by Rev. J. B. Saxton. In May, 1863, Mr. Saxton having left, Rev. John Francis became pastor of the church. Soon thereafter the house of worship was removed to the corner of Ninth and Clay streets, a more eligible situation in view of the rapid growth of the city. This house, and the lot on which it was located, were sold, when the new edifice was erected to the German Turn Verein, who occupy it during the week, religious service being frequently held there on the Sabbath.

Mr. Francis resigned in July, 1864, and was succeeded, in November of the same year, by Rev. A. L. Baker, a recent graduate from Rochester. Mr. Baker was compelled to resign in a few months on account of ill-health. In July, 1865, Rev. B. T. Martin was called to the pastorate, and continued pastor for nearly six years. During Mr. Martin's pastorate, the present house of worship was erected at a cost of about $30,000. The lot cost $2,500.

This house was formally dedicated in March, 1869, the chapel in the rear having been occupied three months before, and used while the main building was being completed.

In February, 1871, Mr. Martin resigned his position as pastor, since which time the church has had no settled pastor.

The Sunday School connected with the church was organized in 1854. It has an attendance of one hundred and fifty-five teachers and scholars, and a library of four hundred volumes. Meets at one o'clock P.M. Superintendent, A. W. Brodt. A Chinese Sunday School connected with the church holds its sessions in the vestry at six o'clock P.M.

First Congregational.

This church was organized December 9th, 1860, with a membership of seventeen persons. The Rev. George Pierson, of the Brooklyn Presbyterian Church, officiated as pastor until May 6th, 1861, when the Rev. George Mooar was called to the pastorate, and continued in charge until May, 1872, when the present pastor arrived. At present there are about two hundred and sixty communicants.

The society, which has charge of the finances of the church, was organized January 7th, 1861. In the following September they purchased a block of land bounded by Broadway, Washington, Tenth and Eleventh streets, for $1,400, one-half of which they sold during the present year for the sum of $65,000.

The church edifice was dedicated June 8th, 1862, and cost, including furniture, $11,345. In 1867 the building was enlarged at an expense of $3,500, and in 1868 a chapel erected at an additional cost of $2,500. In the Spring of 1872 the church and chapel were removed, enlarged and refitted, at an expense of $8,000.

The Sunday School connected with the church was organized in December, 1860. It has average attendance of two hundred and fifty-five teachers and scholars, and a library of eight hundred and sixty volumes. Meets at one o'clock, P. M. Superintendent, Amasa Pratt. The church has under its control two branch Sunday Schools, viz., the Mission, located on Second street, near Washington, organized in 1868, with an attendance of about one hundred and fifty, Superintendent, T. F. Bacon, and the Temescal, located on Telegraph Avenue, organized in 1871, with an attendance of forty, Superintendent, Israel W. Knox.

Second Congregational.

Location, southeast corner of Wood and Goss streets, Oakland Point. Rev. David B. Gray, Pastor; residence, west side of Campbell street, between Lincoln and Seward.

This church was organized May 31st, 1868, with a membership of nine persons. The Rev. Eli Corwin was installed pastor, in November, 1868, and resigned January 1st, 1870, when the present pastor acted as stated supply until installed August 9th, 1870. Number of communicants, June, 1872, fifty.

The edifice occupied by this congregation was dedicated August 31st, 1868, and cost, including lot, about $4,500.

The Sunday School connected with the church was organized August 12th, 1867. It has an attendance of one hundred and forty teachers and scholars, and a library of three hundred volumes. Meets at half-past twelve o'clock, P. M.; Superintendent, W. H. Craig.

cott, W. O. Wedgwood, L. P. Collins, and Q. A. Chase, Trustees of

St. John's (Episcopal.)

Location, west side of Grove street, between Seventh and Eighth.
Rev. Benjamin Akerly, D. D., Rector; residence, west side of Adeline street, between West Fourteenth and West Sixteenth.

This church had an humble origin when Oakland numbered but few houses, and not over a hundred inhabitants. During the Summer of 1852, two families met and worshiped unitedly until a member of one of the families fell seriously ill, when the services were discontinued.

In August, 1853, Rev. Dr. Ver Mehr, Rector of Grace Church, San Francisco, visited Oakland to aid in the establishment of a church, and with much difficulty a meeting of twelve persons was convened. For various reasons, however, the project was for the time abandoned. Tow-ward the close of the same year, the Rev. Dr. Morgan appeared, and preached a sermon to a small but attentive audience beneath the branches of one of Oakland's shady trees; and so favorable was the impression then made, that it was determined that a covered church of some kind should be procured by the following Sunday, if the reverend gentleman would repeat his visit. A large tent, 25 by 70 feet, was erected, with a cross upon the apex to designate the object of the structure, and a temporary pulpit fitted up. Mr. Morgan, however, was in some manner detained, but a Presbyterian minister, the Rev. Mr. Walsworth, who had incidentally visited Oakland, being present in the congregation, was invited to officiate. The same week the tent and appurtenances, was sold to the Presbyterians.

In December, 1854, the Right Rev. Bishop Kip celebrated divine service in a room that had been prepared for the purpose. In January, 1855, the missionary, Rev. E. W. Syle arrived, and became acting rector of the embryo parish. The first communion service was celebrated on Sunday, February 4th, when eleven communed with the rector. On March 5th of the same year, the parish was regularly incorporated and trustees elected, but it was not until the 8th of August following that a constitution and by-laws were finally adopted. During the same month a rented room was fitted up as a church, with benches, at a cost of $150, current expenses being met by collections every Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Syle resigned January, 1856, and from that time lay services were regularly held, Bishop Kip occasionally officiating.

In July, 1856, the Rev. James W. Capen became rector, and continued in charge until 1857, when he resigned.

On March 1st, 1858, the present rector entered upon the discharge of his duties.

A lot was purchased in 1860 for the sum of $450, and a church edifice erected thereon at a cost of $2,600, which has since been enlarged twice. The church was consecrated to divine service March 1st, 1860.
Number of communicants, June, 1872, one hundred and fifty.
The Sunday School connected with the church was organized April, 1858. It has an attendance of one hundred and twenty-five teachers and scholars, and a library of eight hundred volumes. Meets at forty-five minutes past nine o'clock, A. M.; Superintendent, Stephen Smith.

Church Officers—R. W. Kirkham, Senior Warden; Charles D. Haven, Junior Warden; Murray Davis, Treasurer; W. J. Younger, Clerk; James De Fremery, Robert H. Bennett, Joseph W. Jordan and James N. Olney, Vestrymen.

St. Paul's (Episcopal).

Location, southeast corner of Twelfth and Webster streets. Rev. Charles W. Turner, Rector; residence, Tubbs' Hotel, Brooklyn.

This church was organized January 19th, 1871, with a membership of twenty. The Rev. Thomas Williams was placed temporarily in charge, and officiated until May, 1871, when the present rector was called to the parish. Number of communicants June, 1872, eighty.

Immediately after the date of organization, the congregation purchased a lot and edifice for the sum of $10,000, fitting it for divine service at a cost of $2,000 additional. The debt has been reduced within the first eighteen months of the parish existence by the sum of $3,000.

The Sunday school connected with the church was organized January, 1871. It has an attendance of sixty-six teachers and scholars, and a library of one hundred and twenty volumes. Meets at forty-five minutes past two o'clock, P. M. Superintendent, Rev. Charles W. Turner; Assistant Superintendent, Francis S. Page.

Church Officers—Allen I. Gladding, Senior Warden; Watson Webb, Junior Warden and Secretary; T. W. Fenn, Treasurer; John A. Stanly, John B. Harmon, Thomas Yolland, William C. Parker, Heman P. Babcock and B. G. Lathrop, Vestrymen.

Methodist Episcopal.

Location, southwest corner of Washington and Ninth streets. Rev. Thomas S. Dunn, Pastor; residence northwest corner of Tenth and West streets.

This church was organized in 1862, through the exertions of Rev. C. E. Rich, who entered upon his duties as pastor in September of the same year, and continued in charge until September, 1864, when he was succeeded by the Rev. C. Miller, who officiated one year. The Rev. H. H. Hartwell next took charge, until September, 1866, when he was succeeded by the Rev. L. Walker, who officiated until September, 1869, when the present pastor entered upon the discharge of his duties.

In December, 1862, a small building was erected on the corner of Sixth and Washington streets, and used as a chapel until 1864, when the society purchased a lot for the sum of $1,000, and erected the edifice now occupied by them at a cost of about $4,500. Number of communicants, June, 1872, one hundred and forty.

The Sunday School connected with the church was organized December, 1862. It has an average attendance of one hundred and thirty... teachers and scholars, and a library of seven hundred and ninety-three volumes. Three hundred and ten Sunday School papers and magazines are distributed monthly. Meets at half-past nine o'clock A.M.

African Methodist Episcopal.

This church had its origin in 1862, when a small congregation was brought together through the exertions of Mr. Abram Gross, who preached to them for a time in a school house near the corner of Clay and Fifth streets. They afterwards worshiped for a few months at the residence of a member of the congregation, and then in the public school house at Brooklyn.

In 1863 they organized and purchased a lot and the small wooden edifice which they now occupy, for the sum of $700. Mr. John Lane, a local preacher, then took charge and officiated about one year. Since his connection with the church ceased, several local preachers officiated successively until the spring of 1872, when the present pastor took charge.

The Sunday school connected with the church was organized in 1868. It has an attendance of about twenty teachers and scholars. Meets at one o'clock P.M. Superintendent, Rev. James Dorsey.

Church Officers.—Abram Gross, Isaac Flood and Prince Williams, Stewards; Abram Gross, Isaac Flood, Prince Williams, — Howard and Samuel Bowser, Trustees.

First Presbyterian.

Location, southeast corner of Broadway and Thirteenth streets. Rev. Daniel W. Poor, Pastor; residence, Telegraph Avenue near Locust street.

This church was organized in the spring of 1853, being the oldest of any denomination in Oakland. The first services were held in a cloth tent, and afterwards in the public school house under the pastoral charge of the Rev. S. B. Bell. He was succeeded by the Rev. E. B. Walsworth, who officiated until December, 1865, when the Rev. L. Hamilton was called to the pastorate, and continued in charge until February 24th, 1869. The present pastor entered upon the discharge of his duties August 17th, 1869. Number of communicants, June, 1872, one hundred and thirty.

The edifice now occupied by the congregation was erected in 1853, at a cost of $15,000.

The Sunday school connected with the church was organized in 1853. It has an attendance of two hundred and twenty-five, teachers and scholars, and a library of seven hundred and fifty volumes. Meets at half-past nine o'clock A.M. Superintendent, W. H. Knight.

JONES, PULLMAN & CO., 116 Sansom St., S. F., Best Paper and Linen Collars.

Second Presbyterian.

A society has been recently organized for the purpose of erecting a new house of worship for the convenience of members residing at a considerable distance from the present church location.

The following officers have been elected: D. A. Brown, Elder; Thomas A. Simpson, James Hutchinson and J. M. Selfridge, Trustees.

Independent Presbyterian.

This church was organized February 28th, 1869, and is the only one of a similar character in California. The pastor of this congregation officiated for several years as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in this city, but for opinions expressed by him he was tried before the Presbytery, and subsequently before the Synod, resulting in his being deposed by those bodies February 24th, 1869. A large portion of Mr. Hamilton’s congregation, who were opposed to this decision of the Presbytery and Synod, determined upon organizing another society, and secured Brayton Hall as a temporary place of worship, where services were held until the spring of 1870, when the edifice now occupied by the congregation was erected at a cost, including lot, of about $22,500. Number of communicants June, 1872, about sixty-five.

The Sunday School connected with the church was organized March 6th, 1869. It has an attendance of one hundred and thirty-seven teachers and scholars, and a library of five hundred volumes. Meets at half-past twelve o’clock p.m. Superintendent, Rev. L. Hamilton.

Church Officers—Rev. Henry Durant and Rev. David McClure.

German Presbyterian.

Rev. William Buehren, Pastor; residence, south side of Eighth street between Jackson and Madison.

Services are held every Sunday, at eleven o’clock a.m., in the Odd Fellows’ Hall, northwest corner of Franklin and Eleventh streets. Usual attendance from twenty-five to forty. It is the intention of the congregation, when regularly organized, to purchase a lot and erect a church edifice.

Church of the Immaculate Conception, (Roman Catholic.)

Twenty years ago a room in a private house served as a place of worship for the Catholics of Oakland and nearly the whole of the present County of Alameda. A priest from the Mission of San Jose occasionally made a visit to celebrate mass and administer the sacraments, and even these occasional visits had to be omitted during the rainy season, owing to the bad roads. The first church, a building of the most modest description, was erected in 1853 through the exertions of a few of the congregation, and for some time was the only Catholic place of worship in the whole of Alameda and Contra Costa counties, with the exception of the old Mission. Subsequent additions made by the Rev. Fathers Croke and King increased the size of this edifice until it was capable of holding a congregation of several hundreds, but this, too, has become entirely inadequate to the needs of the population of Oakland, although three new parishes have been formed in the county. In 1869, Father King determined to erect a church on a scale commensurate with the promised importance of this city. Plans accordingly were prepared for a building surpassing in dimensions anything in the State, though only with the intention of erecting a part of it at first, a design which has been carried out in the present structure. The foundations were laid in that year, but various causes retarded any further progress until May, 1871, when the superstructure was commenced, and pushed vigorously forward since. Although not quite completed, the church was dedicated on the 23d of June last. The ceremony of dedication was performed by the Archbishop Allemann. The sermon was preached by Father Gallagher, to whom, nearly twenty years ago, the Catholics of Oakland were in a great measure indebted for their first place of worship.

The new church is of wood, with heavy brick foundations, and built in the strongest manner, with double walls firmly braced together. The nave roof principals are supported by posts twelve inches square and fifty-four feet long, to which the principals of the aisle roofs are secured at a height of about thirty-four feet, and these at the outside rest on posts eight inches square and strengthened by side buttresses. The style of the building is early Gothic, and it consists of a nave, side aisles, chancel and two front towers. The latter are to be surmounted by spires at a future period, but even in their present state, their height (one hundred and four feet to the top of the pinnacles) and size give a highly imposing appearance to the front. The roof is open; on the inside, the spaces between the principals and tie beams, and the latter and the arch braces in both nave and aisle roofs, being filled in with light and elegant open-work tracery. The ceiling is paneled and painted blue, with stars; the wood work being painted white with flower patterns in tertiary colors. At the sides the arch braces under the roof timbers are terminated in carved niches, intended to receive statues of the twelve apostles. The cornices are, also of wood, the arches between the nave and aisles and the chancel arch being, with the walls and ceiling under the organ gallery, the only plaster work in the building. The organ gallery projects only a few feet into the church, thus allowing its full dimensions to be better appreciated. The windows are filled with rich stained glass, the heads being ornamented with emblematic figures, and the large front window being quite a fine specimen of artistic design. Much of the interior work is yet unfinished, but that which has been done gives promise of an excellent finish when completed. It is not the least satisfactory matter in connection with this building, that it is entirely the product of California design and workmanship. Nearly all the men employed on it belong to Oakland; the stained glass was manufactured by Mallon & Boyle, of San Francisco, and the fresco painting executed by S. Buzzi, of the same city. The entire cost of this building is about $33,000, and it may be safely set down as one of the cheapest erections of its kind in California. It will seat about twelve hundred and fifty persons. The old church will be converted into a free school, under the charge of the Sisters for the female department, and of the Christian Brothers for the boys.

Masses on Sundays in the new church at seven, nine and half-past ten o'clock A. M. Vespers at half-past seven o'clock P. M. Mass on week days at seven o'clock A. M.

The Sunday School connected with the church was organized in 1853. It has an attendance of two hundred scholars. The girls are taught by the Sisters of the Convent of the Sacred Heart; the boys by the pastors. The school for girls meets at half-past nine o'clock A. M.; for boys at half-past two o'clock P. M. Superintendent, Rev. Michael King.

From the proceeds of a fair held under the auspices of the association and contributions, they have already collected a building fund of $2,200, and propose to immediately commence the erection of a home. The Visitors are distributed so as to cover the entire area of the city, and are selected with great care, their services being gratuitous.

The diversified labors of each district are confided to the prudent supervision and control of a Visitor, whose field of labor is compressed to a limit which admits of his personal attention to all the needy therein.

In whatever part of the city the suffering apply to the members of the Association for aid, by means of a directory and printed tickets they are sent to their appropriate section and Visitor, whose proximity to the residence of the applicants enables him, by personal visitation and inquiry, to extend, withhold or modify relief, on clearly defined principles, according to the deserts and necessities of every case.

Assistance is rendered not only with great caution, but with great secrecy and delicacy when necessary. No degradation consequently will follow such relief; nor will it be the means of undermining one right principle, or of enfeebling one well-directed impulse.

SAN FRANCISCO.

The LEADING INSTITUTE of BUSINESS TRAINING on the PACIFIC COAST.

Single and Double Entry Book-Keeping, Mechanical Drawing, Custom House Business, Plain and Ornamental Penmanship, Modern Languages, Real Estate,
Commercial Arithmetic, Higher Mathematics, Telegraphy,
Business Correspondence, Phonography, Commission,
Mercantile Law, Railroading, Importing,
Political Economy, Surveying, Forwarding,
Actual Business, Brokerage, Grammar,
Merchandising, Exchange, Rhetoric,
Insurance, Jobbing, Reading,
Banking, Mining, Spelling.
A Practical Education is valuable to the Farmer, Mechanic, and Lawyer, as well as to the Merchant and Banker. The demand of the times is for BUSINESS MEN in every profession and calling. No young man can afford to do without a good, thorough Business training, and for acquiring this there is no other school on the Pacific slope that can compare with

It is first-class in all its Departments. It is far the largest Business College on the coast. It is the only School in San Francisco that makes a Business Education its distinct and separate specialty. Its Teachers are competent and experienced. Its Pupils are from the best class of young men in the State. It is under the very best discipline. Its Scholarships are good in THIRTY-SIX Colleges. It employs three of the best Penmen in the State. It has the largest rooms, the largest attendance, and the most complete system of Business training of any commercial school on the Pacific.

THE SCHOLARSHIPS

Of Heald's Business College are good in the thirty-six Schools of the International Business College Association, or Bryant & Stratton Chain. This affords their holders a Business acquaintance in all the leading commercial cities of the United States and Canada.

OUR COURSE OF INSTRUCTION

Is far more thorough and extensive than that which any other institution can offer the public.

The Student Buys, Sells, Ships, Barter, Consigns, Discounts, Issues, Draws Checks, Notes, and Drafts, Gives Leases, Deeds, etc., and goes through the entire routine of actual business. He becomes acquainted with changing books from Single to Double Entry, and vice versa, and also with Joint Stock and Partnership Books, and every form and style of Book-Keeping practiced in well-regulated Business Houses.

JOBBING, IMPORTING, COMMISSION, AND BANKING,

Are carried on with the Students of the other Colleges in the Association, thus fully illustrating the methods of carrying on Business and Keeping Books when there are different currencies. The Pupil becomes familiar with all the calculations and entries connected with Legal Tender and Gold transactions.

THE SCHOOL-ROOM AND COUNTING-ROOM

Are united upon a plan that secures to the Student all the practical advantages of each. There is in operation a Banking House, with Checks, Drafts, Notes, Bills of Exchange, Certificates of Deposit, etc., fully illustrating the Banking business. The School-room is elegantly fitted up with Merchandising, Jobbing, and Importing Emporiums, General and National Banking Offices, Commission, Forwarding, Real Estate, Insurance, Express, and Post Offices.

LADIES' DEPARTMENT.—Quite a large number of ladies are in attendance, both in the Business Department and in the Telegraphic Institute of the College. Their success in both Departments has been flattering to themselves and to the School. Ladies wishing to fit themselves, in a thorough manner, for positions as Clerks, Cashiers, Copyists, Book-Keepers, or Telegraph Operators, will find the very best facilities at

YOUNG MEN AND LADIES

Wishing to prepare themselves for the practical duties of life, will find this to be the School. Pupils learn just what they will use to accomplish success, and do not meddle with superfluous studies. Each Student receives separate instruction, and can be kept back by those more deficient. All persons passing the final Examination in a satisfactory manner will receive our finely engraved GRADUATING DIPLOMA. Graduates of this College are in demand among Business Men, and can readily find good positions. Such as are in good standing are assisted in obtaining situations, if desired.
Practice Makes Perfect.

While Theory is valuable for acquiring a knowledge of the principles of Business, it alone cannot be depended upon for learning the details of Mercantile transactions, or for gaining rapidity of execution. The expert Accountant must be familiar with all the technicalities of business, and also able to work rapidly and correctly. Practice alone makes perfect, and this is made the basis of instruction at

The Student buys and sells Groceries, Produce, Hardware, Dry Goods, etc., for Cash, Notes, Drafts, Orders, or on Credit. He imports and exports Merchandise of all kinds; ships and receives consignments of goods to be sold on commission, or joint account; procures insurance; buys and sells Real Estate, Mining Stocks, Bank Stocks, etc.; corresponds with other business firms; makes his deposits, keeping a regular bank account; gives and receives checks, certificates of deposit, etc., and computes all the calculations connected with his transactions.

Our Business Course

is especially adapted to the wants of young and middle-aged men, who wish to prepare for the active duties of life, whether as book-keepers, salesmen, merchants, bankers, professional men, or even farmers or mechanics.

Theory and Practice

are combined in such a manner as to make each a powerful help to the other. We have consulted the wants of the great masses, and arranged our course accordingly. Theory and Practice, properly combined, constitute the only course of business training that can be relied upon. By thoroughly mastering both branches, the Student is fitted to enter at once upon the duties of a Book-keeper or Accountant, with skill and confidence.

Sessions Continue Day and Evening.

Clerks, Mechanics, and others, engaged during business hours, can secure a sound Mercantile education by attending evenings only. There are no class systems to keep the pupil back. Each makes advance as rapidly as desired. No particular age or degree of advancement is required to enter the College. We have in operation a

Preparatory Department,

where all the branches of an ordinary English education are taught, for those who are too young, not sufficiently advanced for the Business Course. Visitors are always welcome at the College. Scholarships for the full Business Course, good throughout the Association of thirty-six Colleges, with privilege of revising at pleasure, $75.

The full Business Course comprises over Fifty Different Sets of Books, and forms one of the most Thorough and Comprehensive Courses of Instruction ever introduced into any Business College in the Country.

Further Information.—Young men and young ladies should obtain full particulars regarding this useful Institute of Practical Education. Now is the time to get an education. Use the present, and you can trust in the future. Competent persons are wanted in all departments of industry. In order to learn about this School, send for

The Main Points of the Law under which the above Claims were Paid.

No Insurance on Life shall be forfeited by non-payment of premium. The net value of the Policy shall be ascertained at the time of the lapse of premium, and be considered a net single premium of temporary insurance. If the death of the party occurs within the term of temporary insurance, the Company shall be bound to pay the whole Policy the same as if there had been no lapse of Premium, with interest to the date of death.

THE NEW ENGLAND MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.

Was incorporated in 1835. It has accumulated assets of $10,000,000.00.

The premiums of this Company are the same as those of companies that compel the insured to forfeit what they have paid in case of non-payment of Premiums when due.

WALLACE EVerson, Gen'l Agent,
Office, N. E. Corner California and Sansom Streets,
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

NOTE.

The Massachusetts Reports for 1869 show that during the previous year there were 40,000 Policies, insuring $100,000,000, forfeited to the Companies by the insured in the United States. The lapse of these 40,000 Policies involved the loss of a very heavy amount of money to those who took them out, and transferred it to those who had no rightful claim to it. And this fact enforces the wisdom of a law like that of Massachusetts, which interposes to prevent forfeiture, and appropriates the money to the insurance of those who paid it.

The NEW ENGLAND MUTUAL has the smallest ratio of Expense of any Company in the United States.

All Policies Guaranteed against Forfeiture by the Laws of the State.

PIEDMONT

White Sulphur Springs,

OAKLAND HEIGHTS,

Three Miles from Broadway Depot.

The House at this charming watering place is now open for the season. It is lighted with gas, contains rooms single or in suites, and is first-class in every respect.

The Tables will be supplied at all times with fresh butter, milk, eggs and vegetables from the Piedmont and adjoining farms, and with all the delicacies of the season from the San Francisco market. Breakfasts, Lunchees, Dinners, or Suppers will be furnished to order.

The Billiard Room is situated so that it can be used by either ladies or gentlemen. Other sources of amusement for the patrons of the house will be added.

The Springs are highly charged with Sulphur, Iron and Magnesia, and many invalids have already expressed themselves greatly benefited by using the Piedmont waters.

A Bath House is in course of erection, where hot sulphur baths will be supplied to those who desire to enjoy this great luxury.

The Climate is mild and pleasant, and the view from the house and grounds unsurpassed.

The Drive to Piedmont is one of the pleasantest in the State. Go out Broadway or Webster street to Lake Avenue, or across San Antonio bridge and around Lake Merritt. Finger-boards are placed at all cross roads. Carriages from San Francisco can make Piedmont, by the Oakland Ferry, in about one hour from Pacific Street wharf.

The Piedmont Springs Stage will run regularly between the Hotel and Broadway Station, so that persons doing business in San Francisco can leave by the eight or nine o'clock boat in the morning, and return in the four or five o'clock boat in the evening. Commutation tickets for the stage will be issued to boarders at the Hotel.

Beautiful Cottage Lots can be purchased adjoining the Hotel grounds, and cottages erected for a few hundred dollars. Persons owning cottages can have meals served in their own rooms, or take them at the Hotel at reasonable rates, thus having all the comforts of a home without the annoyance of servants and housekeeping, and at much less expense.

Telegraph. The lines of the Western Union Telegraph Company connect with the house.

A DIRECTORY OF THE
TOWN OF BROOKLYN,
JULY 1st, 1872.

HISTORICAL.

Brooklyn, like Oakland, was originally a part of the Peralta Ranch. The two towns started together, but from the first, Oakland led, although Brooklyn, at her San Antonio side, had the advantage of being the principal "Embarcadero." The settlement of Brooklyn by Americans dates from the 26th day of February, 1850, at which date three brothers, natives of the State of Maine, named Robert F. Patten, William Patten, and Edward C. Patten, arrived there and built a temporary residence. The ground was covered with wild oats, and wild cattle roamed at large. The Pattens found a companion in Moses Chase, who had been taken sick in a hunting expedition. At their invitation he joined them, and for several years shared their fortunes. With the exception of Edward C. Patten all are yet living. The first frame house, which was erected on what is now known as the Brannan property, near the Bag Factory, is still in existence on Jefferson street, and is used as the kitchen portion of Mr. Chase's residence. This new company of enterprising men leased from Antonio Peralta 480 acres of land for eight years, and commenced its cultivation, raising wheat, barley, oats and potatoes.

Two years afterwards, a firm of San Francisco lawyers—Messrs. Jones, Tompkins and Strode—undertook to lay out a town, and with this view purchased 6,200 acres of land, extending from Indian Gulch, near the residence of John B. Watson, to Sausal Creek, at Fruit Vale. The land leased by the Pattens was the most important part of this tract, and in order to avail themselves of it they made the occupants a present of one half of it in consideration of immediately giving up the other half. The Pattens and Chase entered heartily into the plans of the new company for laying out a town, and seconded all their efforts. They took another partner, named Strode, into their enterprise with them, after receiving half of the property. In 1853, Mr. H. A. Higby was employed to survey and lay out the new town, which was called Clinton. A line of cotton wood trees was planted along Washington street from Lake Peralta to San Antonio. A block was set aside for a plaza, and a flag-staff erected thereon. This with a flag, at that day, cost $200.

JONES, PULLMAN & CO., 116 Sansom St., S. F., Dress Buttons in great variety.
In the spring of 1854, the Patten and Jones companies united to build a grand hotel, which was finished and opened in May of that year. It contained seventy rooms, and with its furniture cost $30,000. It promised to be a great success, as its net earnings the very first month after being opened were $6,000. Two months after, however, unfortunately it was destroyed by fire, and was not rebuilt. This was a serious blow to the success of the new town, which had bright prospects before it. Property at once fell, and all enterprise ceased. Among those who erected handsome residences in the new town were Capt. J. Nagle, who was the original owner of the Badger property; Senator H. S. Foote, who erected the house now occupied by Wm. Faulkner, Esq., and Wm. Van Voorhies, Esq., of Oakland, who built the house now owned by Dr. C. C. Knowles. Beyond the erection of these houses, Clinton made little progress until the incorporation of the town of Brooklyn in 1870.

Shortly after the Patten and Jones companies commenced operations in Clinton, another active master spirit commenced operations in the southern side of the town, which from the Embarcadero was called San Antonio. This was the late lamented James B. Larue, a man of enterprising spirit and determined will. Mr. Larue came to Brooklyn in 1851, and in 1852 commenced building the only wharf yet in the town. At that time people were content to use only sail boats for crossing the Bay to and from San Francisco. As the place was the chief point for commerce on this side of the Bay, small steamers were soon put on the route, and in the fall of 1850 the Kangaroo commenced to make two trips a week. In 1852 the steamer Boston made a few trips, when she was destroyed by fire. Mr. Sweet's large building on Commerce street was built over her hull. The Kate Hayes was the name of another steamer that commenced running the latter end of the same year. Large numbers of cattle were shipped by these steamers to San Francisco.

Besides the wharf, Mr. Larue built a large warehouse and started a lumber yard, doing a thriving business. A company was formed by Mr. Larue for the purpose of building and running a better class of steamers, and accordingly the San Antonio was built and put upon the route in 1858. In the following year the Oakland was built. The fare, which had originally been as high as $1.00, was reduced to 25 cents. From that time the town commenced growing. San Antonio soon became a stirring place, drawing towards it natives, foreigners and Americans, and was frequently the theatre of many wild scenes. Bull baiting became a regular Sunday amusement. Fandangos and saloons were frequent institutions of the new town, and murders, hangings, shooting and cutting quite common.

In 1863 a great change took place. The San Francisco and Oakland Railroad was completed to Brooklyn, trains commenced to run, and the "Creek Route" closed by the purchase of the steamers by the railroad company.

Mr. Larue now turned his attention to real estate, and held, in common with Frank, Friedman, and others, the greater part of the land in San Antonio, a large portion of which yet belongs to his estate. In 1852 the first school-house, a portion of the present modest structure, near the Baptist Church on Adams street, was built. A Mrs. Smith was the first teacher. The grammar school was built in 1864, and was for years the finest school house in the county. In 1854 the Clinton Flour Mills were built. The first store, the building used by Mr. Johnson for a wagonmaker's shop at the present time, was erected in 1854, by Mr. Lacey, who had Mr. Atchinson associated with him in the business. In August, 1865, the cotton factory was started.

The Presbyterian Church was the first place of worship erected in the town, in 1861. Stages from Oakland to San José commenced running as early as 1853. Cameron's Brooklyn line subsequently ran to the Mission and Alvarado.

Brooklyn's progress is now rapid and permanent. Under the provisions of the Act of Incorporation the interests of all classes are carefully guarded, and the necessary authority is vested in the officers named therein to meet the requirements of the future. Since January, 1871, over one hundred buildings have been erected, several of which are of an important and extensive character. During this period, Tubbs' Hotel, which has already become one of the most popular resorts in the State, and a street railroad connecting Oakland with Brooklyn, have been completed and opened to the public. Increased school facilities have been provided. A newspaper, the Home Journal, conducted with ability and enterprise, has been established, and a system of street improvements adopted which must add materially to the future health and prosperity of the town. Since April, 1870, over one hundred thousand dollars have been expended in grading and improving the public streets.

One of the most notable and attractive features of Brooklyn are the numerous elegant private residences, surrounded by extensive and tastefully ornamented grounds, which have been completed within the past few years. Worthy of special mention are those of Hiram Tubbs, James Larue, Benjamin Haynes, J. West Martin, Dr. C. C. Knowles, William Faulkner, J. C. Mathews, Walter Turnbull, and others.

The town is supplied with gas from the Oakland Gas Co., and water is furnished by the works of the Contra Costa Water Co., and the pipes from Fruit Vale belonging to the same company. Water is also obtained for street purposes, and for the locomotives of the Central Pacific Railroad, from four artesian wells on Larue's wharf, which afford all that is required for these purposes.

Admirably located for commercial purposes, on an elevated plateau near the foot-hills of the Coast Range, from the hights of which the most picturesque views of the Bay of San Francisco and the surrounding country can be obtained; with an excellent climate and a soil unsurpassed for fertility, Brooklyn is evidently the nucleus of a large and important city.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The first school in Clinton was taught in 1852, by a Mrs. Smith, to a class of twelve pupils, in a small wooden building erected for the purpose, on Adams street between Taylor and Pierce. The destruction by fire of the school records of the town previous to July, 1862, prevents a history of the early organization of the department further than the facts herein stated, which have been obtained from reliable authority.

At a special election held June 29, 1863, the inhabitants voted in favor of levying a tax of $5,000 for building, furnishing and enclosing a new school house. The number of votes cast were 77, of which 55 were in favor of, and 22 against the tax. Soon after, the erection of the building was commenced on the block bounded by Polk, Walker, Lacey and Humbert streets, which was completed and occupied in January, 1864.

The management and control of the Public Schools are now vested in a Board of three Trustees, elected annually in May, who are clothed with the necessary authority to secure an efficient administration of affairs of this department of the local government.

The department, July 1, 1872, comprises three schools, one Grammar and two Primary. The Grammar School is held in the school building erected in 1864, and is organized in four classes, averaging over fifty to a class. Teachers: Principal, J. H. Sumner; Assistants, Mrs. E. R. Tucker, Miss Carrie Ellis and Miss Nina Patten. One of the Primary Schools is taught in the old building on Adams street; number of pupils about 100; and the other, which was opened in July, of the present year, is held in a rented room on Washington street near Larue; number of pupils about 40. Teachers: Principal, Mrs. Horace Richardson; Assistants, Miss H. E. Bonner and Miss Mary Farley.

School Statistics, 1872.—Number of children under six years, white, 277; colored, 3; total 280. Between five and fifteen: White, boys, 300; girls, 288; total, 588. Colored, boys, 6; girls, 8; total 14. Indian, 1. Total, 603. Mongolian, fifteen and under, 40. Total, fifteen and under,
923. Number of children attending school: public, 452; private, 61. Total, 513, or about eighty seven per cent of those between five and fifteen.

PRIVATE SCHOOLS.

Mills' Seminary.—This flourishing institution, located in Brooklyn Township near Fruit Vale, is referred to in the article on Private Educational Institutions, on page 46.

An excellent private seminary has been recently established in Washington Hall by Mrs. T. M. Harrison, and already numbers about 25 pupils.

The assessed value of real and personal property, for 1872-3, is $2,800,000.

Under the provisions of the town Charter, no debt can be accumulated against the town.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Organized May, 1869. The apparatus, at present, consists of a New York side stroke engine, purchased of the San Francisco Fire Department, and a hose-cart with six hundred feet of hose. The engine house, located on the corner of Washington and Commerce streets, was erected at a cost of $640. The lot upon which it stands was donated to the department by James B. Larue and J. F. Brown. The company numbers about fifty-one members.

Officers—J. F. Steen, Foreman; James Moffitt, First Assistant; W. D. Thomas, Second Assistant; George Chase, Secretary; Henry Tum Suden, Treasurer.

POPULATION, JULY 1, 1872.

The population of the town of Brooklyn was returned by the Federal Census of 1870, at 1603; or native, 1002; foreign, 601; divided as follows: White, 1,500; colored, 3; Chinese, 100. The School Census, July, 1872, returns the number of children of fifteen and under at 923, and the names of adult males in the Brooklyn Directory completed about the same date aggregate 680. Taking these two last returns as a basis, and calculating thereon, according to the plan adopted to estimate the population of Oakland, (see page 26) and it will give about 2,750, which is believed to be a fair approximation of the present population of the town of Brooklyn.

THE LOCAL NEWSPAPER PRESS.

The first newspaper issued in Brooklyn, was the Brooklyn Independent, a weekly journal published by S. H. Wade & Co. It was started in June, 1870, and discontinued in November of the same year, lasting but six months. It was a very handsome sheet, and numbered among its editors, Bowman, Macdonald, and Halley.

The Home Journal, which was commenced as a weekly paper on the 9th of July, 1871, by Mr. W. Halley, has been since twice enlarged, has the largest circulation of any weekly paper in the county, and is an excellent advertising medium, circulating as it does in all parts of the county, and the cities of Oakland and San Francisco. Much enterprise is displayed in its management, and it is rapidly progressing to a foremost position in the newspaper press of California.

MANUFACTURING ENTERPRISES.

California Jute Manufacturing Company.—East side Lake street between Jackson and Franklin. Manufactures grain sacks, wool sacks, potato sacks, burlaps and twines from jute, of which over 15,000 bales are imported yearly from Calcutta. The capacity of the Company's mill is about to be increased to 150 looms, capable of turning out five million sacks per year. To manufacture this quantity, employment will be given to at least 500 men. This result has been reached within two years, the growth of the institution being unprecedented in the manufacturing enterprises on this coast. Beyond the importation of the raw material, everything is done on the premises—spinning, weaving, sewing, hydraulic pressing, etc., and nothing in the way of machinery is wanting to reach a perfect result in the operations of the company.

The corporation has heretofore been known as the Oakland Cotton Mills, which was organized August 25, 1865, by W. H. Rector and his three sons. Originally cotton goods were manufactured, but the machinery for that work has been sold to make room for the jute working.

The Brooklyn Manufacturing Company.—V. S. Northey and James McGrath commenced operations July 23rd, 1866. They are engaged quite extensively in the manufacture of carriages, buggies, wagons and all kinds of agricultural implements, the quality of which will compare favorably with those of any similar establishment on the coast. AND
MUNICIPAL ORDINANCES,
RELATING TO THE CITY OF OAKLAND, JULY, 1872.

CITY CHARTER.*

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE CITY OF OAKLAND, APPROVED MARCH 25TH, 1854, WITH THE AMENDMENTS THERETO, JULY, 1872.

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The corporation, or body corporate, now existing and known as the Town of Oakland, shall remain and continue to be a body politic and corporate, by the name of the City of Oakland, and by that name shall have perpetual succession, may sue and defend, in all Courts and places, and in all actions; and shall have and use a common seal, and alter the same at pleasure; and may purchase, receive, hold and enjoy real and personal property, and sell and dispose of the same for the common benefit: provided, that it shall purchase without the city no property except such as shall be deemed necessary for establishing hospitals, prisons, cemeteries, industrial schools, and water works.

SEC. 2. The boundaries of said city shall be the same as the boundaries of the late Town of Oakland, which are more particularly defined and described, as follows, to wit: †Northerly, by a straight

They shall also have power to pass such ordinance, or ordinances, as may be necessary to prevent animals from running at large within the limits of the city; to establish a Pound and appoint a Pound Keeper, and prescribe his duties, and to provide for the public sale, by the Pound Keeper, of such animals as may be impounded, in the same way, and upon like notice, that personal property is sold by execution, under the laws of the State: provided, said City Council shall allow, by ordinance, the owner or owners of such property so impounded to reclaim the same at any time before sale, upon payment of costs, and charges of taking up and impounding, and within thirty days after the sale, shall allow him, or them, upon proof of the ownership of the property sold, duly made before the Mayor, and upon payment of the costs and expenses of impounding and selling, and upon the payment of the sum of one dollar to the Mayor,* as a fee for the investigation of the question of ownership and for his certificate to that effect, the purchase money arising from such sale or sales; they shall also have power to affix penalties to the violation of any and all ordinances; such penalties shall be by fine, not exceeding one hundred dollars, and in case the fine be not paid, then they may direct that the person or persons may be imprisoned, at the rate of one day for every two dollars of the fine imposed, or in lieu of the imprisonment, or any part of it, they may direct that the person or persons so fined shall labor under the direction of the city authorities, either upon the streets, public grounds or buildings, or in such other places as may be deemed advisable for the benefit or revenue of said city; they shall have power to appoint suitable persons to fill vacancies in the office of Mayor, Councilmen, or any other elective office, until the next regular charter election, when, if the term be unexpired, an election shall be held, to fill such vacancy for the unexpired term of said officers. They shall also have power to determine the compensation to be paid to the Assessor, Treasurer and Clerk, Marshal, and all other officers to whom the receipt or expenditures of the moneys or funds of the city shall be entrusted: provided, that the members of the City Council shall receive no salary for their services. The City Council shall have no power to borrow money, unless they shall by ordinance direct the same, in anticipation of the revenue for the coming year, and shall provide in said ordinance for repaying the same out of such revenue; nor in such case shall they borrow a sum to exceed ten thousand dollars; they shall have power to provide for all city elections, to designate the place or places of holding the same, giving at least ten days' notice thereof; to appoint Inspectors and Judges of Election, examine the returns, and declare the result, and to determine contested elections. The Board shall elect a member from their own body to preside at the meetings, and to discharge the duties of Mayor whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Mayor, or the Mayor shall be absent from the city, or be unable, from sickness, or other cause, to attend to the duties of his office; and in absence of the Clerk, to appoint one of their members to act as Clerk; they shall have power, whenever they may deem it necessary to exercise the same, to establish and fix by ordinance, a salary for Mayor, in addition to the fees received by him as Justice of the Peace;* but such ordinance shall not take effect unless ratified by a vote of the citizens of said city, at the next succeeding election; they shall also have power, and may set aside any amount of money belonging to the city which may at any time be in the hands of the Treasurer, after deducting the current expenses of the city, and the interest due upon the funded debts of said city, as a sinking fund, whereby the bonds issued by said city may be redeemed, or they may, at any time before said bonds shall become due, with any surplus money which may belong to the city, after paying said expenses and interest, redeem, or purchase for the city, and in its name, in the manner most advantageous to the city, any outstanding bonds, which bonds, or claims, when so purchased, shall be immediately canceled: provided, this right shall not affect the rights of the holders of said bonds, or in any way prevent them from holding the same until said bonds become due and payable; they shall also have the power to determine the width of sidewalks and the material and manner of their construction, as well as the grade of the same; and shall also have the power and right to require and compel the owner, or occupant, of any lot or lots, situate upon any street of said city, to erect, construct and keep in repair, the sidewalks fronting his, or her, lot or lots; and in case the owner, or occupant, of any lot or lots, after due notice, refuse to build, repair, or keep in repair; said sidewalks in accordance with the general regulations, then the Council may cause the same to be built or repaired, and the costs and charges shall be a lien on said lot or lots, and may be enforced by suit at law; and said lien shall not be discharged until said costs and charges have been paid; they shall also have the power to establish fire districts, and within said districts to prevent the erection of wooden buildings, or any buildings composed of combustible materials; and also to prevent the further repairing of wooden buildings within the fire limits established.

TIME AND METHOD OF LEVYING TAXES.

Sec. 6. The City Council shall, between the first Monday in January and the first Monday of March, in each year, by ordinance, levy a tax sufficient to pay the interest on the funded debt of said city, and in addition thereto, any amount they may deem necessary for any and all purposes for which they are authorized to levy a tax, the whole amount of which not exceeding one and one-fourth per cent. on all real and personal property. Such ordinance shall designate the number of cents which shall, on each one hundred dollars of taxable property, real and personal, and improvements, be levied. Sec. 8. Every ordinance passed by the City Council shall be presented to the Mayor, for his approval; if he approve, he shall sign it; if not, he shall return it within five days thereafter, or if the City Council be not then in session, at its next meeting, when said City Council shall reconsider said ordinance, and if approved by two-thirds of all the members elected to such Board, it shall take effect and stand as an ordinance of the city.

For the purpose of enabling the Assessor to make such assessment, he shall demand from each person and firm, and from the President, Cashier, Treasurer or Managing Agent of each corporation, association or company within the city, a statement, under oath or affirmation, of all the real estate and personal property within the city limits, owned or claimed by, or in the possession or control of, such person, firm or corporation, association or company. If any person, officer or agent, shall neglect or refuse, on the demand of the Assessor, to give, under oath or affirmation, the statement required by this section, the Assessor shall make an estimate of the value of the taxable property which such person, officer or agent neglected or refused to render, under oath or affirmation, and the value so fixed by the Assessor shall not be reduced by the Board of Equalization.

Sec. 12. At the same time and in the same manner as the other lists of property herein required are given, each and every person shall deliver, under oath or affirmation, to the Assessor, a similar list of all the real estate, with the improvements thereon, if any, and other personal property, which he, and the firm of which he is a member, and the corporation, association or company, of which he is President, Cashier, Treasurer, Secretary, Trustee or Managing Agent, owns, claims or has charge, possession or control of, within the limits of the city, which list shall particularly describe each block or plot, or if less than a block, each lot, so that each may be found and known by reference to the official map of said city; also, all vessels, steamers, and other water crafts; also, oyster beds, and extent and location thereof; and shall also specify each and all deposits, and with whom such deposits are made, and the place or places in which the same may be found; also, all bonds, notes, mortgages, due bills and other evidences of debt, together with all money and gold dust; and shall also specify the kind and nature of all other personal property belonging to, or under the control, charge, or in the possession of, him or them.

Sec. 13. If any person shall willfully make, or give, under oath or affirmation, a false list of his, her or their taxable property, under his or her control, such person shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished therefor as is by law provided for the punishment of perjury.

Sec. 14. If any person shall give the Assessor a false name, or shall refuse to give his or her name, or shall refuse to give a list of property theretofore provided, or shall refuse to swear or affirm to such list, he or she shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be arrested upon complaint of the Assessor, and upon conviction before the Mayor, or a Justice of the Peace, he or she shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not less than two days nor more than two months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 15. It shall be the duty of the Assessor to prepare a tax list or assessment roll, alphabetically arranged, in the book furnished for that purpose, in which shall be listed or assessed all the real estate, and improvements on real estate and on public lands, and all personal property within the limits of the city. And he shall set down in separate columns:

First—The names of the taxable inhabitants, firms, incorporated companies, or associations, in alphabetical order, if known; if unknown, the property shall be assessed to unknown owners; and if any person shall refuse to make a statement of his property, under oath, as required, that fact shall be noted under his name.

Second—All real estate and improvements, taxable to each inhabitant, firms, incorporated companies, or associations, described by "plots," "blocks," "lots," or fractions of lots, where it can be done; and where it is by plots, give, as near as may be, the number of acres; and if any lands or improvements have not been plotted, then describe the same by metes and bounds, and the number of acres, and location: provided, that when two or more parties claim, or give a description of, the same land, it shall be assessed to each party making such claim, or giving such description, according to the estimated value of the claims of each.

Third—The cash value of real estate, and the improvements thereon.

Fourth—The cash value of all the improvements on real estate, where the same is assessed to a person other than the owner of said real estate.

Fifth—The cash value of all personal property, except improvements on real estate or public lands, taxable to each.

Sixth—The total value of all property taxable to each.

And no further description of personal property than that required by the foregoing provisions of this section shall be needed, or be requisite, to render the assessment binding and effective.

Sec. 16. On or before the first Monday in August, in each year, the Assessor shall complete his list or assessment roll, and shall attach his certificate thereto, and deliver it and the books, and any map he may have accompanying the same, and all the original lists of property given to him, to the Clerk of the city; and the Clerk shall thereupon notify the Board of Equalization, and the tax payers, of the facts, by posting three notices, specifying the time of the meeting of said Board for the purpose of equalizing the taxes. Said roll shall be kept open in his office, for public inspection.

SEC. 17. It shall be lawful for the Assessor, at any time subsequent to the first Monday in August, and prior to the last Saturday in October, of each year, to assess any property which shall not be on the regular list, and he shall enter such assessment in a separate portion of the tax list or assessment roll, under the head of Subsequent Assessments,” and shall deliver the original assessment, or a true copy thereof, to the Clerk of said city, to be by him compared with the entries on the assessment roll, which subsequent (assessment) shall be certified to by the Assessor.

The Board shall meet on the second Monday of August, and shall continue in session from time to time, until the business of equalization presented to them is disposed of; provided, however, they shall not sit after the first Monday in September, except as hereinafter provided. The Board of Equalization shall have power to determine all complaints made in regard to the assessed value of any property, and may change and correct any valuation, either by adding thereto, or deducting therefrom, if they deem the sum fixed in the assessment roll too small or too great, whether said sum was fixed by the owner or the Assessor; except, that in cases where the person complaining of the assessment has refused to give the Assessor his list, under oath, as required under this Act, no reduction shall be made by the Board of Equalization, in the assessment made by the Assessor; and if the Board of Equalization shall find it necessary to add to the assessed valuation of property on the assessment roll, they shall direct the Clerk to make a list of the names of all persons whose assessments have been so added to, and opposite the name of each person on said list they shall state the amount so added on the assessment roll, a copy of which list, certified to by said Clerk, shall be posted at some public or conspicuous place in said city, which list shall be posted prior to the first Monday in September; and it shall also contain a notice that the Board of Equalization will again meet, on the second Monday of September, to hear and determine any and all complaints in relation to said increased assessment. And the Board shall meet on the second Monday of September, for said purpose, and may, if necessary, continue in session, from time to time, during said week; but no person shall be entitled to be heard in the matter, unless he shall make affidavit that he did not appear before said Board in August, or if he did so appear, that he had no knowledge of such increased assessment or valuation while said Board were in session in September; and any and all changes which said Board shall then make, shall at once be entered on the assessment roll or list, and the same shall also be noted on the original increased assessment list.

Sec. 19. During the session of the Board of Equalization, the Clerk shall enter upon the assessment roll all the changes and corrections made by the Board, and he shall also add up the columns of valuation of each description of property on the roll; and on or before the third Monday in September, as to the original assessment roll, and on or before the second Monday in November, as to the subsequent assessment roll, he shall deliver a corrected roll, duly certified by him, or certified copy thereof, to the Tax Collector.

Sec. 20. Upon the first Monday in November, the Board of Equalization shall again meet, to equalize the subsequent assessment made by the Assessor, and to hear complaints, as provided in the foregoing sections. A quorum of said Board shall consist of three of any of the persons composing said Board, and a quorum of said Board shall be sufficient to constitute the Board of Equalization, and for the transaction of business; and, should the Clerk be absent at any of the meetings of said Board, said Board may appoint one of their number to perform his duties herein described, during his absence.

DUTIES OF TAX COLLECTOR.

Sec. 21. The City Marshal, who shall be ex officio Tax Collector, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall execute to the City of Oakland an official bond, with two or more sufficient sureties, in such sum as the City Council may direct, and to be approved by the Mayor, conditioned for the faithful performance of all the duties of City Marshal and all the duties of Tax Collector, as required by law, or as may be required by virtue of any ordinance of the city, and shall take the oath of office, which shall be indorsed upon his certificate of election or appointment.

Sec. 22. where it will be sold, in three public places in the city, and shall, at the expiration of five days, proceed to sell, at public auction, at the time and place mentioned, to the highest bidder for cash, a sufficient quantity of said property to pay the taxes and expenses incurred; and for this service the Tax Collector shall be allowed from the delinquent party a fee of three dollars, and the same mileage that a Sheriff would be entitled to receive for traveling to the place to make a levy; and upon payment of the purchase money, he shall deliver to the purchaser the property sold, together with a certificate of sale, and the amount of taxes or assessments and expenses thereon, for which the property was sold, whereupon the title to the property so sold shall vest absolutely in the purchaser.

Sec. 23. The Tax Collector shall, on the first Monday in each month, return to the Clerk a list of all collections made under the preceding section, and it shall be the duty of the Clerk to mark the word "paid" on the original, or subsequent assessment roll, opposite the name of each party whose taxes are so paid, as soon as the same shall have been delivered to him.

Sec. 24. The Tax Collector, upon receiving the assessment roll, or the duplicate thereof, shall proceed to collect the taxes, and shall forthwith give notice, by publication in a newspaper, if there be one published in the city, and if not, by posting three notices in three public and conspicuous places in the city, that the city taxes are due and payable, and that the law in regard to their collection will be strictly enforced. The Tax Collector shall be chargeable for all the taxes on the roll assessed.

Sec. 25. Whenever any tax is paid to the Tax Collector, he shall mark the word "paid," and the date of the payment, opposite the name of the person, or the description of the property, liable for such tax, and shall give a receipt therefor, specifying the amount of the assessment, the amount of the tax, and a description of the property assessed; but the Tax Collector shall not receive any taxes on the real estate for any portion less than the least subdivision entered on the assessment roll; provided, always, that an owner of any undivided real estate may pay the proportion of taxes due on his interest therein.

Sec. 57. The City Council shall, when they may deem the same necessary, establish by ordinance a general plan or plans of streets, for any and all portions of the city not laid out into streets; and after such plan or plans shall have been so established, any improvements which may thereafter be made, or erected, or constructed, within the lines of any street contemplated by said plan or plans, shall not be included in any assessment of damages which may be made when the city proceeds to open said streets. Applications for opening any street or streets embraced in any plan heretofore adopted, or to be hereafter adopted, by the City Council, shall be made to the Council by petition in writing, designating the street or any part thereof desired to be opened, which said petition shall be signed by the applicant or applicants, and shall state their places of residence. If the City Council so resolve, it shall direct the City Marshal to give written notice to the owners or the occupants of the land embraced within the lines of said street, or owning or occupying the lands abutting upon the same, which said notice shall briefly state the substance of said petition, and shall require such owners or occupants to appear before such Council, at the time which said Council shall designate by resolution, which shall not be less than twenty days from the adoption of such resolution, and not less than ten days after the service of said notice upon said owners or occupants, then and there to state any objections they may have to the opening of said street; provided, however, that whenever the lands embraced within said lines of said streets, or abutting upon the same, are vacant or unoccupied, or the owners or occupants thereof cannot be found within the limits of said city by said Marshal, then, and in that event, it shall be a sufficient service of said notice upon said owners or said occupants to post the same in a conspicuous place upon said vacant or unoccupied lands, and also at the office of the Mayor of said city, at least ten days prior to the said time fixed for said appearance. At the time appointed for said hearing, the parties notified shall appear and briefly state, in writing, their objections, if any they have, to the opening of said street or streets; and if damages are claimed, shall also therein state the amount thereof; if damages are claimed, the Council shall designate a day to determine the same, which shall not be less than ten days after the time so appointed to hear said parties as aforesaid. Upon such designated day, or such other day to which the hearing of the same shall be continued, the Council shall proceed to hear the allegations of the parties, and such process [proofs] as may be produced in support of or against the same, for which purpose the presiding officer at such meeting of said Council shall have power to administer all the necessary oaths or affirmations, and if the party to whom the same is administered shall wilfully, corruptly, and falsely swear touching the matter in issue before said Council, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the State Prison for any term not less than one nor more than fourteen years. Thereupon, said Council shall separately assess the amount of damages to each person entitled to the same; provided, that if the opening of said street or streets shall benefit the lands abutting upon or adjacent to the same, and increase the value thereof, such benefit and increase in value shall be estimated and deducted from the damages. If, however, after being notified as aforesaid, said owners or occupants fail to appear and claim damages as aforesaid, the said Council shall only award them nominal damages. Any owner or occupant of land aggrieved by the action of the Council respecting the amount of damages allowed them, shall have the right to appeal to the County Court of the County of Alameda, where said question of damages, and none other, shall be heard anew and determined. Said appeal shall be taken by filing a notice with the Clerk of said County Court, and by serving a copy upon the Mayor of said city, within five days after said assessment of damages by said Council; and within three days after the filing of such notice said aggrieved party shall cause to be transmitted to the said County Court a copy of the order or resolution of said Council, assessing said damages, certified to by the Clerk of said Council, for which copy and certificate said Clerk shall be entitled to receive a fee of two dollars. Upon the filing of said certified copy of said order or resolution, in said County Court, together with an undertaking on the part of said appellants, in the sum of one hundred dollars, executed by two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Mayor of said city, which said undertaking shall be conditioned to the effect that the said appellants will pay all the costs of the appeal and all costs that may be recovered against him or them in said County Court—provided, he or they recover therein no greater sum as damages than were assessed or allowed by said Council, together with ten per cent. additional thereto—the County Judge shall order a special term of said County Court to be holden upon a day to be designated, not more than ten days after filing said certified copy of said resolution or order, at which said special term, the said issue as to damages should be tried de novo, with or without a jury, as the parties may desire; and upon the rendition of judgment therein, a certified copy thereof shall be transmitted by the Clerk of said Court to the Clerk of the City Council, who, upon the order of said Council, shall cause the amount thereof to be paid by the Marshal of said city to the parties entitled to the same. Said judgment shall separately state the amount of damages to which each party is entitled. If the appellants, or either of them, recover no more in said County Court than the amount allowed or assessed to him by said Council, together with ten per cent. additional thereto, he shall pay the costs of the appeal; but if he or they recover a sum more than ten per cent. beyond the amount so allowed, he shall be entitled to recover of said city the said costs of appeal; provided, that if any claimant of damages shall not give notice of appeal in the manner and within the time hereinbefore specified, then he shall be deemed to have assented to said assessment of damages by said Council; and provided, further, that if any occupant or owner of such lands shall fail, after being notified as aforesaid, to appear and claim damages, he shall be deemed to have waived his right of appeal to said County Court. The provisions of an Act entitled an Act to regulate proceedings in civil cases in the Courts of Justice of this State, and the Acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, shall be applicable, so far as the same are not inconsistent with this Act. There shall be the same right to an appeal from any such judgment rendered in said County Court, as if the action had been originally brought therein. When the amount of damages shall be finally ascertained and determined, the said Council shall order the City Marshal to pay the amount thereof to the parties entitled thereto, and upon such payment, or the tender thereof, the said Marshal shall proceed and open said street.
All streets that have been laid out by the authorities of the Town or City of Oakland, and declared to be public thoroughfares or streets, and that have been used as such, shall be and are hereby declared public streets, to the extent that the same may have been used; provided, that private rights of property shall not be affected thereby. (Amendment, April 25, 1863.)

Sec. 58. An Act to incorporate the City of Oakland, passed March twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and fifty-four, and also an Act to amend an Act entitled an Act to incorporate the City of Oakland, passed March twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and fifty-four, approved May fifteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and also an Act amendatory of and supplementary to an Act entitled an Act to incorporate the City of Oakland, passed March twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and fifty-four, approved May fourteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and also all other Acts in conflict with the provisions of this charter, are hereby repealed; provided, that the validity of the ordinances or proceedings of the Trustees of the Town of Oakland, and of the authorities of the City of Oakland, shall in no wise be affected thereby. (Amendment, April 25, 1863.)

and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The City Council of the City of Oakland shall have power, upon the payment of just compensation, to lay out and open new streets, lanes, alleys, courts, and places within the corporate limits of said city, but shall have no power to subject the city to any expenses therefor, except for the necessary expense of surveying and mapping out the same, and when said streets are so laid out and opened the provisions of this Act shall be applicable thereto.

Sec. 2. The City Council are hereby authorized and empowered to order the whole or any portion of the streets, lanes, alleys, places or courts of said city graded or regraded to the official grade, planked or replanked, paved or repaved, macadamized, piled or repiled, capped or recapped, or to order sidewalks, sewers, cesspools, manholes, culverts, curbing and crosswalks to be constructed therein, and to order any other work to be done which shall be necessary to make and complete the whole or any portion of said streets, lanes, alleys, places or courts, and they may order any of the said work to be improved whenever the interest and convenience of the public will be promoted thereby. (Amendment, March 29, 1870.)

Sec. 3. The City Council may order any work authorized by section two of this Act to be done, after notice of their intention so to do, in the form of a resolution, describing the work, and signed by the Clerk of said Council, has been published for a period of ten days. At the expiration of any notice of intention as hereinbefore provided, the City Council shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction to order any of the work to be done, or to be afterwards improved, which is authorized by section two of this Act; and all owners of lands, or lots, or portions of lots, who may feel aggrieved, or who may have objections to any of the subsequent proceedings of the said Council in relation to the work mentioned in such notices of intention, shall file with the said Clerk a petition or remonstrance, wherein they shall state in what respect they feel aggrieved, or the proceedings to which they object; such petition or remonstrance shall be passed on by the said City Council, and their decision therein shall be final and conclusive. The owners of more than one half in frontage of the lots and lands fronting on the work proposed to be done, and designated in said resolution, (excepting work proposed to be done on Broadway street in said city) may make written objections to said proposed work within ten days from the first publication of said resolution.
Said objections shall be delivered to the Clerk of the said City Council, who shall indorse thereon the date of their reception by him; and such objections so indorsed shall be a bar to any further proceedings in relation to said work for a period of six months, unless the owners as aforesaid shall sooner petition for the same to be done; provided, that one half or more in width or in length of any street, lying and being between two main street crossings, have been already improved as aforesaid, said City Council may order the remainder improved, notwithstanding the objections of property owners fronting thereon. Before passing any ordinance for the construction of said improvements, plans, specifications, and careful estimates shall be furnished the said City Council by the City Marshal of said City of Oakland if required by them.

Sec. 4. The owners of more than one half in frontage of lots and lands fronting on any street, lane, alley, place, or court mentioned in section one of this Act, or their duly authorized agents, may petition the said City Council to order any of the work men-

HUNTINGTON, HOPKINS & CO., Agents Jessop & Sons' Steel, Cor. Bush and Market, S. F.
tioned in section two of this Act to be done, and the said City Council may order the work mentioned in said petition to be done after notice of their intention so to do has been published as provided in section three of this Act. No order or permission shall be given to grade, pave, plank, or macadamize any street, lane, alley, place, or court in the first instance, or any portion thereof, without extending or completing the same throughout the whole width of such street, lane, alley, or court.

Sec. 5. Before giving out any contracts by the City Council for doing any work authorized by section two of this Act, the City Council shall cause notice to be conspicuously posted on or near the Council room door of said Council, and also published for five days in some daily paper to be designated by said Council, inviting sealed proposals for the work contemplated. All proposals offered shall be delivered to the Clerk of said City Council, and said Council shall, in open session, open, examine and publicly declare the same and award the contract for said work, in their discretion, to the lowest responsible bidder; provided, said Council may reject any and all bids, should they deem it for the public good, and also the bid of any party who may have proved delinquent or unfaithful in any former contract with said city. All proposals shall be accompanied by a bond in the sum of one thousand dollars, signed by the bidder and by two sureties, who shall justify in the manner hereinafter provided, conditioned to pay to the said City of Oakland the full sum of one thousand dollars, as liquidated damages, if the bidder to whom the contract is awarded shall fail or neglect to enter into a contract as hereinafter provided. It shall be the duty of the City Attorney to sue on said bonds in the name of said city, and to pay the amount recovered over to the Treasurer of said city. The City Council shall have power to relieve the contractor from the performance of the conditions of said bond when good cause is shown therefor. All persons (owners included) who shall fail to enter into contracts, as herein provided, are hereby prohibited from bidding a second time for the same work. Notice of such awards shall be published for five days, in the same manner as hereinafter provided for publication of proposals of such work. The owners of the major part of the frontage of lots and lands liable to be assessed for said work, shall not be required to present sealed proposals, but may, within said five days after the first publication of notice of said award, elect to take said work, and enter into a written contract to do the whole work at the price at which the same may have been awarded. Should the said owners fail to commence the work within ten days after the first publication of the notice of said award, and prosecute the same with due diligence to completion, it shall be the duty of the City Marshal to enter into a contract with the original bidder to whom the contract was awarded, and at the prices the same may have been awarded him; but if such bidder neglects for fifteen days after the first publication of the notice of said award, to enter into the contract, then the City Council shall again publish, for said five days, and pursue the steps required by this section the same as in the first instance. If the owners who may have taken said contract do not complete the same within the time limited in the contract, or within such further time as the said City Council may give them, the said Marshal shall report such delinquency to the City Council, who may relet the unfinished portion of said work, after having pursued the formalities of this section as stated aforesaid. All such contractors shall, at the time of the execution of the contract, also execute a bond to the satisfaction of the Mayor of said city, with two or more sureties, payable to the City of Oakland, in such sums as the said Mayor shall deem adequate, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, and the sureties shall justify before any officer competent to administer an oath, in double the amount mentioned in said bond, over and above all statutory exemptions. Any person suffering damages by reason of the breach of said contract, may sue on such bond in his own name. It shall be the duty of the Marshal to collect from the contractors, before the contract is signed by him, the cost of publication of the notice required under the proceedings prescribed in this Act. (Amendment, March 29, 1870.)

Sec. 6. The Marshal of said city is hereby authorized in his official capacity to make all written contracts and receive all bonds authorized by this Act, and to do any other act, either expressed or implied, that pertains to the Street Department under this Act, and the said Marshal shall fix the time for the commencement of the work under all contracts entered into by him, which work shall be prosecuted with due diligence from day to day thereafter to completion, and may extend the time so fixed from time to time under the direction of the City Council. The work provided for in section two of this Act must in all cases be done under the direction and to the satisfaction of the Marshal, and the materials used shall be such as are required by said Marshal, and all contracts made therefor must contain this condition and also express notice, that in no case, except where it is otherwise provided in this Act, will the city be liable for any portion of the expense, nor for any delinquency of persons or property assessed. The assessment and apportionment of the expenses of all such work in the mode herein provided shall be made by the said Marshal.

Sec. 7. (Subdivision One.) The expenses incurred for any work authorized by section two of this Act shall be assessed upon the lots and lands fronting thereon, except as hereinafter specifically provided; each lot or portion of a lot being separately assessed in proportion to the frontage, at a rate per front foot sufficient to cover the total expenses of the work.

(Subdivision Two.) The expenses of all improvements, except such as are done by contractors under the provisions of section thirteen of this Act, until the street crossings, lanes, alleys, places, or courts, are finally accepted as provided in section twenty of this Act, shall be assessed upon the lots and lands as provided in this section, according to the nature and character of the work; (and after such acceptance, the expense of all work thereafter done thereon shall be paid by said city out of the Street Department Fund.)

(Subdivision Three.) The expense of work done on main street crossings shall be assessed upon the four quarter blocks adjoining and cornering upon the crossing; and each lot or part of a lot in such quarter blocks fronting on such main streets shall be sepa-
really assessed according to its proportion of frontage on the said main streets.

(Subdivision Four.) Where a main street terminates in another main street, the expense of the work done on one half of the width of the street opposite the termination shall be assessed upon the lots in each of the two quarter blocks adjoining and cornering on the same, according to the frontage of such lots on said main streets, and the expense of the other half of the width of said street upon the lot or lots fronting on the latter half of the street opposite such termination.

(Subdivision Five.) Where any small or subdivision street crosses a main street, the expense of all work done on said crossing shall be assessed on all the lots or portions of lots half way on said small streets to the next crossing or intersection, or to the end of such small or subdivision street, if it does not meet another.

(Subdivision Six.) The expense of work done on small or subdivision street crossings shall be assessed upon the lots fronting upon such small streets, on each side thereof, in all directions, half way to the next street, place, or court, on either side, respectively, or to the end of such street, if it does not meet another.

(Subdivision Seven.) Where a small street, lane, alley, place, or court, terminates in another street, lane, alley, place, or court, the expense of the work done on one half of the width of the street, lane, alley, place, or court, opposite the termination, shall be assessed upon the lot or lots fronting on such small street, or lane, alley, court, or place, so terminating, according to its frontage thereon, half way on each side, respectively, to the next street, lane, alley, place, or court, or to the end of such street, lane, alley, place, or court, if it does not meet another; and the other one half of the width upon the lots fronting such termination.

(Subdivision Eight.) The expenses of all the aforesaid improvements on overflowed lands belonging to the city shall be defrayed by the city, but no contract for work shall be given out except to the lowest responsible bidder, after an observance of all the formalities required by this Act.

(Subdivision Nine.) Where any work mentioned in section two of this Act (sewers, manholes, cesspools, culverts, crosswalks, crossings, curbings, grading, curbing, piling, and capping, excepted) is done on one side of the centre line of said streets, lanes, alleys, places, or courts, the lots or portions of lots fronting on that side only shall be assessed to cover the expenses of said work, according to the provisions of this section.

(Subdivision Ten.) Section one of chapter three hundred and twenty-five of the laws of this State, entitled an Act amendatory of and supplementary to an Act to provide revenue for the support of the government of this State, approved April twenty-ninth, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, approved April nineteenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, shall not be applicable to the provisions of this section, but the property therein mentioned shall be subject to the provisions of this Act, and to be assessed for work done under the provisions of this section.

Sec. 8. After the contractor of any street work has fulfilled his contract to the satisfaction of the Marshal of the said city, or City Council on appeal, the Marshal shall make an assessment to cover the sum due for the work performed and specified in said contracts, (including incidental expenses, if any) in conformity with the provisions of the preceding section, according to the character of the work done, or if any direction and decision shall be given by said Council on appeal, then in conformity with such direction and decision, which assessment shall briefly refer to the contract, the work contracted for and performed, and shall show the amount to be paid therefor, together with the incidental expenses, if any, the rate per front foot assessed, the amount of each assessment, the name of the owner of each lot or portion of a lot, (if known to the Marshal) if unknown, the word "Unknown" shall be written opposite the number of the lot, and the amount assessed thereon, the number of each lot or portion of a lot assessed, and shall have attached thereto a diagram, exhibiting each street or street crossing, lane, alley, place, or court on which any work has been done, and showing the relative location of each distinct lot or portion of a lot to the work done, numbered to correspond with the numbers in the assessments, and showing the number of feet fronting assessed for said work contracted for and performed.

Sec. 9. To said assessment shall be attached a warrant, which shall be signed by the Marshal, and countersigned by the Mayor of said city, who, before countersigning it, shall examine the contract, the steps taken previous thereto, and the record of the assessments, and must be satisfied that the proceedings have been fair and legal. The said warrant shall be substantially in the following form:

FORM OF THE WARRANT.

"By virtue hereof, I, (name of Marshal,) Marshal of the City of Oakland, County of Alameda, and State of California, by virtue of the authority vested in me as said Marshal, do authorize and empower (name of contractor) (his or their) agents or assigns, to demand and receive the several assessments upon the assessment and diagram hereto attached, and this shall be (his or their) warrant for the same.

"OAKLAND, (date,) 186—

"(Name of Marshal)

"Marshal of City of Oakland.

"Countersigned by (name of) Mayor."

Said warrant, assessment, and diagram shall be recorded in the office of said Marshal. When so recorded, the several amounts assessed shall be a lien upon the lands, lots, or portions of lots assessed, respectively, for the period of two years from the date of said recording, unless sooner discharged; and from and after the date of said recording of any warrant, assessment, and diagram, all persons mentioned in section eleven of this Act shall be deemed to have notice of the contents of the record thereof. After said warrant, assessment, and diagram are recorded, the same shall be delivered to the contractor, or his agent or assigns, on demand, but not until after the payment to the said Marshal of the incidental expenses not previously paid by the contractor or his assigns; and by virtue of said warrant, said contractor, or his agents or assigns, shall be authorized to demand and receive the amount of the several assessments made to cover the sum due for the work specified in such contracts and assessments.

Sec. 10. The contractor or his assigns, or some person in his or their behalf, shall call upon the persons assessed, or their agents, if they can conveniently be found, and demand payment of the amount assessed to each. If any payment be made, the contractor, his assigns, or some person in his or their behalf, shall receipt the same upon the assessment in presence of the person making such payment, and shall also give a separate receipt if demanded. Whenever the persons so assessed or their agents cannot conveniently be found, or whenever the name of the owner of the lot is stated as "unknown" on the assessment, then the said contractor or his assigns, or some person in his or their behalf, shall publicly demand payment on the premises assessed. The warrant shall be returned to the Marshal within thirty days after its date, with a return endorsed thereon, signed by the contractor or his assigns, or some person in his or their behalf, verified upon oath, stating the nature and character of the demand, and whether any of the assessments remain unpaid, in whole or in part, and the amount thereof. Thereupon the Marshal shall record the return so made, in the margin of the record of the warrant and assessment, and also the original contract referred to therein, if it has not already been recorded, at full length, in a book to be kept for that purpose in his office, and shall sign the record. The said Marshal is authorized at any time to receive the amount due upon any assessment list and warrant issued by him, and give a good and sufficient discharge therefor; provided, that no such payment so made after suit has been commenced, without the consent of the plaintiff in the action, shall operate as a complete discharge of the lien until the costs in the action shall be refunded to the plaintiff; and he may release any assessment upon the books of his office, on the production to him of the receipt of the party or his assigns, to whom the assessment and warrant were issued; and if any contractor shall fail to return his warrant within the time and in the form provided in this section, he shall thenceforth have no lien upon the property assessed; provided, however, that in case any warrant is lost, upon proof of such loss, a duplicate can be issued, upon which a return may be made, with the same effect as if the original had been so returned. After the return of the assessment and warrant as aforesaid, all amounts remaining due thereon shall draw interest at the rate of one per cent. per month, until paid. (Amendment, March 29, 1870.)

Sec. 11. The owners, whether named in the assessment or not, the contractor or his assigns, and all other persons directly interested in any work provided for in this Act or in the assessment, feeling aggrieved by any act or determination of the Marshal in relation thereto, or having or making any objection to the correctness or legality of the assessment or other act, determination or proceeding of the Marshal, shall, within thirty days after the date of the warrant, appeal to the City Council, as provided in this section, by briefly stating their objections in writing, and filing the same with the Clerk of said City Council. Notice of the time and place of the hearing, briefly referring to the work contracted to be done, or other subject of appeal, and to the acts, determinations or proceedings objected to or complained of, shall be published for five days. Upon such appeal, the said City Council may remedy and correct any error or informality in the proceedings, and revise and correct any of the acts or determinations of the Marshal relative to said work; may confirm, set aside, alter, modify or correct the assessment in such manner as to them shall seem just, and require the work to be completed according to the directions of the City Council; and may instruct and direct the Marshal to correct the warrant, assessment or diagram in any particular, or to make and issue a new warrant, assessment, and diagram, to conform to the decisions of said City Council in relation thereto, at their option. All the decisions and determinations of said City Council, upon notice and hearing as aforesaid, shall be final and conclusive upon all persons entitled to an appeal under the provisions of this section, as to all errors, informalities and irregularities which said City Council might have remedied and avoided; and no assessment shall be held invalid, except upon appeal to the City Council, as provided in this section, for any error, informality, or other defect in any of the proceedings prior to the assessment, or in the assessment itself, where notice of the intention of the City Council to order the work to be done, for which the assessment is made, has been actually published in a newspaper of said city for the length of time prescribed by law, before the passage of the resolution ordering the work to be done. (Amendment, March 29, 1870.)

Sec. 12. At any time after the period of thirty-five days from the day of the date of the warrant, as hereinbefore provided, or if any appeal is taken to the City Council, as is provided in section eleven of this Act, at any time after five days from the decision of said Council, or after the return of the warrant or assessment, after the same may have been corrected, altered or modified, as provided in section eleven of this Act, (but not less than thirty-five days from the date of the warrant) the contractor or his assignee may sue, in his own name, the owner of the land, lots or portions of lots assessed, on the day of the date of the recording of the warrant, assessment and diagram, or on any day thereafter, during the continuance of the lien of said assessment, and recover the amount of any assessment remaining due and unpaid, with interest thereon, as hereinbefore provided. Suit may be brought in the District Court of the Third Judicial District, and, on all sums less than three hundred dollars, in the Police Court of the City of Oakland. The said warrant, assessment, and diagram, with the affidavit of demand and non-payment, shall be prima facie evidence of such indebtedness, and the right of the plaintiff to recover in the action. The Court in which such suit shall be commenced shall have power to adjudge and decree a lien against the premises assessed, and to order such premises to be sold on execution, as in other cases of the sale of real estate by the process of said Courts; and on appeal, the appellate Court shall be vested with the same power to adjudge and decree a lien, and to order to be sold such premises, on execution or decree, as is conferred on the Court from which an appeal is taken. Such premises, if sold, may be redeemed as in other cases. In all suits now pending or hereafter to be brought, to recover street assessments, the proceedings therein shall be governed and regulated by the provisions of this Act, and also, when not in conflict herewith, by the Civil Practice Act of this State. This Act shall be liberally construed to effect the ends of justice. (Amendment, March 29, 1870.)

Sec. 13. The Marshal of said city may require, at his option, by notice in writing to be delivered to them personally, or left on the premises, the owners, tenants, or occupants of lots or portions of lots liable to be assessed for work done under the provisions of this Act, to improve forthwith any of the work mentioned in section two of this Act, in front of the property of which he is the owner, tenant, or occupant, to the centre of the street, or otherwise, as the case may require, specifying in said notice what improvement is required. After the expiration of three days, the said Marshal shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction to contract for the doing of the work or improvements required by said notice. If such improvement be not commenced within three days after notice given as aforesaid, and diligently and without interruption prosecuted to completion, the said Marshal may enter into a contract with any suitable person applying to make said improvements, at the expense of the owner, tenant, or occupant, at a reasonable price, to be determined by said Marshal, and such owner, tenant, or occupant shall be liable to pay the same. After the certificate referred to in section fourteen shall have been recorded, the sum contracted to be paid shall be a lien, the same as provided in section nine of this Act, and may be enforced in the same manner.

Sec. 14. If the expenses of the work and material for such improvements, after the completion thereof, be not paid to the contractor so employed, or his agent or assignee, on demand, the said contractor or his assigns shall have the right to sue the owner, tenant, or occupant, under the provisions of this Act, for the amount contracted to be paid; and the certificate of the Marshal that the work has been properly done, and that the charges for the same are reasonable and just, shall be prima facie evidence of the amount claimed for said work and materials, and of the right of the contractor to recover for the same in such action.

Sec. 15. In addition, and as cumulative to the remedies above given, the City Council shall have power, by resolution or ordinance, to prescribe the penalties that shall be incurred by any owner or person liable or neglecting or refusing to make improvements when required, as provided in section thirteen of this Act, which fines and penalties shall be recovered for the use of the city by prosecution in the name of the The People of the State of California, in the court having jurisdiction thereof, and may be applied, if deemed expedient by the said Council, in payment of the expenses of any such improvements, when not otherwise provided for.

Sec. 16. The person owning the fee, or the person in possession of lands, lots, or portions of lots, or buildings under claim, or exercising acts of ownership over the same, shall be regarded, treated, and deemed to be the "owner," (for the purpose of this law) according to the intent and meaning of that word as used in this Act. And in case of property leased, the possession of the tenant or lessee holding and occupying under such persons shall be deemed to be the possession of such owner, and the person so defined to be the owner shall be personally liable for the payment of any charge or assessment lawfully made or assessed upon said lands, lots, or portions of lots, by said Marshal, or contracted to be paid to the contractor, for improvements to cover the expense of any work done under and authorized by the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 17. Any tenant or lessee of the lands or lots liable may pay the amount assessed against the property of which he is the tenant or lessee under the provisions of this Act, or he may pay the price agreed on to be paid under the provision of section thirteen of this Act, either before or after suit brought, together with costs, to the contractor or his agent or assigns, or he may redeem the property if sold on execution or degree, for the benefit of the owner, within the time prescribed by law, and deduct the amount so paid from the rents due and to become due from him, and for any sum so paid beyond the rents due from him, he shall have a lien upon and may retain possession of the said lands and lots until the amount so paid and advanced be satisfied, with legal interest, from accruing rents or by payment by the owner.

Sec. 18. The records kept by the Marshal of said city in conformity with the provisions of this Act, and signed by him, shall have the same force and effect as other public records, and copies therefrom, duly certified, may be used in evidence with the same effect as the originals. The said records shall, during all office hours, be open to the inspection of any citizen wishing to examine them, free of charge.

Sec. 19. Notices in writing which are required to be given by the Marshal under the provisions of this Act may be served by any Constable, with the permission of the Marshal, and the fact of such service shall be verified by the oath of the person making it, taken before the Marshal, (who, for that purpose, is hereby authorized to administer oaths) Mayor, or any Judge or Justice of the Peace, or such notices, whether verbal or written, may be delivered by the Marshal himself. The Marshal shall keep a record of the fact of giving such notices, when delivered by himself personally, and also of the notices and proof of service, when delivered by any other person.

Sec. 20. When any street or portion of a street has been or shall hereafter be constructed to the satisfaction of the City Council and Marshal of said city, under such regulations as said Council shall adopt, the same shall be accepted by said Council, and thereafter shall be kept open and improved by the said city, and the expense thereof to be paid out of the Street Department Fund; provided, that the City Council shall not accept of any portion of a street less than the full width thereof and one block in length, or one entire crossing. The Marshal shall keep in his office a register of all accepted streets, the same to be indexed so that reference may be easily had thereto.

Sec. 21. The said Marshal shall keep a public office in some convenient place to be designated by the City Council, and such records as may be required by the provisions of this Act. He shall superintend and direct the cleaning of all the sewers in the public streets, and the expense of the same shall be paid out of the Street Department Fund.

Sec. 22. It shall be the duty of said Marshal to see that the laws, orders, and regulations, relating to the public streets and highways be fully carried into execution, and that the penalties therefor are rigidly enforced. It is required that he shall keep himself informed of the condition of all the public streets and highways, and also of all public buildings, parks, lots, and ground of the said city, as may be prescribed by the City Council; and should said Marshal fail to see the laws, orders, and regulations relative to the public streets and highways carried into execution, after notice from any citizen of a violation thereof, the said Marshal and his sureties shall be liable upon his official bond to any person injured in his person or property in consequence of said official neglect.

Sec. 23. If in consequence of any graded street or public highway improved under the provisions of this Act being out of repair, and in a condition to endanger persons, or horses or other animals, passing therein, any person while carefully using said street or public highway, and exercising ordinary care to avoid the danger, suffer damage to his person, or if any horses, animals, or other property, being lawfully ridden, driven, or conveyed through such street or public highway, be injured, lost, or destroyed, through any such defect therein, no recourse for damages thus suffered shall be had against the said City of Oakland; but if such defect in the street or public highway have existed for the period of twenty-four hours or more after notice to the said Marshal, then the person or persons on whom the law may have imposed the obligation to repair such defect in the street or public highway, and also the officer or officers through whose official negligence such defect remained unrepaired, shall be jointly and severally liable to the party injured for the damage sustained.

Sec. 24. The City Engineer shall be:

First—The proper officer to do the surveying and other work necessary to be done under sections one and two of this Act, and to survey, measure, and estimate the work done under contracts for grading streets, and every certificate of work done by him, signed in his official character, shall be prima facie evidence in all the courts of this State of the truth of its contents; he shall also keep a record of all surveys made under the provision of section one of this Act, as in other cases. The Marshal shall measure and determine any other work which may be done under the provisions of this Act.

Second—The words "improve," "improved," and "improvements," as used in this Act, shall include all necessary repairs of work all mentioned in section three of this Act, and also the reconstruction of all or any portion of said work.

Third—The term "main street," as used in this Act, means such street or streets as bound a block; the term "street" shall include crossings.

Fourth—The word "block" shall mean the blocks which are known and designated as such on the map and books of the Assessor of said city.

Fifth—The term "incidental expense" shall mean the expense for work done by the City Engineer under the provisions of this Act; also, the expense of printing, advertising, and measuring the work done under contracts for grading, and the expense of superintendence of sewers, and of piling and capping.

Sixth—The publication of notices required by the provisions of this Act shall be published daily, (Sundays excepted,) in a newspaper to be designated by the City Council of said city.

Sec. 25. The Marshal shall appoint a person or persons suitable to take charge of and superintend the construction and improvement of each and every sewer, and of piling and capping, whose duty it shall be to see that the contract made for the doing of said work is strictly fulfilled in every respect; and in case of any departure therefrom, to report the same to the Marshal. He shall be allowed for his time actually employed in the discharge of his duties such compensation as shall be just, but not to exceed five dollars per day. The sum to which the party so employed shall be entitled shall be deemed to be "incidental expenses," within the meaning of these words as defined in this Act; provided, that the owners of more than one half in frontage of the lots and lands fronting on the work proposed to be done under this section may, within forty-eight hours after the work has been commenced, appoint their own superintendent of the work, and provide for his compensation by private agreement.

Sec. 26. After a street shall have been paved, planked, or macadamized by authority of this Act, the City Council shall have power to levy a tax from time to time, as occasion may require, upon the property fronting upon said street, sufficient to keep the same in repair. Said tax shall be levied and collected at the time and in the manner prescribed for the levy and collection of city taxes, and the amount thus collected shall be set apart as a Street Department Fund, and appropriated to the repair of said streets, and shall not be used for any other purpose.

Sec. 27. The City Council of said city shall have power to issue and collect an annual tax license on draymen, cabmen, omnibus proprietors, expressmen, and other common carriers doing business in the city of Oakland, the proceeds of said licenses to be devoted to a Street Department Fund for keeping in repair the streets in said city. Said annual license not to be more than twelve dollars nor be less than eight dollars for such persons so licensed.

Sec. 28. The City Council of the City of Oakland shall have full power and authority to grade or regrade, pave or repave, plank or replank, macadamize, pile, or repile, cap or recap, or otherwise improve Broadway street in such manner and upon such terms as they may deem proper. To authorize such improvements of said street it shall not be necessary that any petition or petitions shall be presented to said Council, nor shall such improvements be stayed or prevented by any written or other remonstrance or objection, unless such Council deem proper.*

SEC. 29. This Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF OAKLAND TO LAY OUT, OPEN OR IMPROVE STREETS IN SAID CITY, APPROVED JANUARY 31, 1870. WITH THE AMENDMENT THERETO, APPROVED JANUARY 16, 1872.

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever a petition shall be presented to the Council of the City of Oakland, signed by at least three residents and freeholders of said city, each of whom shall be directly interested in the property to be affected thereby, asking for the laying out, opening, extending, straightening or widening any street or highway in said city, it shall be the duty of the said Council to examine into said matter, and if, in the opinion of a majority of all the members elected to said Council, to be expressed by a resolution to be entered upon their minutes, with the names of the members voting therefor, the benefits to arise from granting said petition, in whole or in part, will exceed the damages and expenses to be caused thereby, and the convenience of the public will thereby be promoted, they may by resolution direct the City Engineer to survey and make a map of the said proposed improvement and of the premises to be affected thereby, a copy of which resolution shall forthwith be transmitted by the Clerk of said Council to said City Engineer.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the City Engineer, upon receiving such notice, to proceed and survey said proposed improvement, to make a map thereof, showing the location, boundaries, the amount of land necessary to be taken, and the names of the owners or possessors thereof, showing the portions owned or possessed by each, and to return the same to the Council within ten days after the receipt of said resolution by him, unless longer time shall be granted by said Council therefor.

* The Act of the Legislature approved December 29th, 1871, amends the road law of Alameda County, and provides new regulations for levying and collecting road taxes, but the City of Oakland is wholly excluded from the operations of the Act, so that hereafter the Supervisors cannot levy any road tax in Oakland at all. An application was made for a peremptory writ of mandate to compel the County Treasurer to pay to the Treasurer of the City of Oakland §11,015.44, the amount due Oakland from the taxes for the fiscal year 1871-2. Judge McKeel, of the Third District Court, decided that it was the duty of the County Treasurer to pay the money to the City, but he dismissed the application because no showing, based upon legal evidence, was made in behalf of the City to prove the amount due.

Sec. 3. Upon receiving said map and return from the said Engineer, the said Council shall forthwith give notice of not less than five days, by publication in not less than two daily newspapers, if there be so many published in said city, of the time and place where they will hear all parties desiring to show cause against the said improvement. At the time and place designated in such notice, or at such subsequent time as the Council may adjourn to—but such adjournment shall not, in the aggregate, exceed seven days—the said Council shall proceed with such hearing.

Sec. 4. If no objections be made, or if, after hearing the objections thereto, the Council shall remain of the opinion that such improvement should be made, they shall elect, by ballot, three Commissioners, residents and property owners in said city, not interested, directly or indirectly, in the proposed improvement, or in the property to be affected thereby, to assess the damages and benefits to be caused by said improvement. Within two days thereafter, said Commissioners shall give notice of the time and place where they will proceed to examine the property to be affected by such improvement, by an advertisement in two newspapers, if there be so many published in said city, such time to be not more than three days thereafter; at the time and place named, they shall proceed to examine the land and improvements to be affected by the proposed improvement, and shall first ascertain the amount of damages to be sustained; the names of the owners of the property to be damaged, and the amount to be paid to each of such owners therefor. They shall then assess upon the property to be benefited by such improvement a sum sufficient to pay the whole amount of said damages, and the fees and expenses of the said Commissioners, and shall apportion the same among the owners of the several parcels of property to be thus benefited, in proportion to the amount of benefits to accrue to each. In making such estimate and apportionment, they shall take all pertinent testimony that may be offered them.

* A case was made by C. T. Jacobus and carried to the Supreme Court, September term, 1871, which set aside the report of the Commissioners on the ground that they had not awarded the damages or assessed the benefits in the manner required by the Act. That Court very justly characterized the law as ambiguous; but taking the whole Act together, they held that it is necessary to first award to the parties whose property is taken for the street, or damaged by its opening, the amount of the damage, irrespective of any benefit that may accrue to them, and that the benefit must be separately assessed. In other words, that all the damages must be first ascertained and added together, then the benefit to each piece of property in the district affected ascertained, and all the benefits added together, and then the assessment that each is to pay will be that proportion of the total damage that the benefit in his particular piece of property bears to the whole of the benefits. To illustrate: If the total of the value of the land taken to open the street is $10,000, and the property on both sides will be benefited $2,000, and A's particular lot will be benefited $500, then A pays 500-2000, or 1-40th of the and may examine any witnesses that they shall deem it necessary or advisable to call, and shall have authority to administer oaths to all persons testifying before them. Within twenty-one days after their appointment, unless further time be granted by the Council, they shall make a report to the said Council of the assessments and awards so made by them, with the names and amounts of the persons damaged or benefited as aforesaid.

Sec. 5. Upon receiving such report, said Council may, if in their judgment the said report is legal, and the said assessment therein contained is in accordance with law, by ordinance levy a tax upon the several parcels of property reported as benefited by said improvement, for the amounts severally charged against each in said report, which tax shall be a lien upon the several parcels of property severally, and shall not be removed until said tax is paid. Immediately upon levying such tax the City Marshal shall serve a notice in writing upon each owner of the land so taxed, or his lawful agent; or in case such owner or agent cannot be found, to post such notice in a conspicuous place upon the land and premises so taxed, which notice shall contain the name of the owner, (if known) a brief description of the lands taxed and the amount of tax levied, and that the payment of the said tax is demanded by the City Treasurer of the City of Oakland within ten days from the service of such notice. At the expiration of ten days from the time of service on each of said persons and property so taxed as aforesaid, the said Council shall issue to the City Marshal a warrant to be signed by their President and Clerk, under the seal of the City, commanding him to levy and collect all of the said tax that shall be then unpaid, with his fees for collection from the property upon which the same is a lien as aforesaid, and shall thereupon deliver the same to said Marshal. (Amendment, January 16, 1872.)

Sec. 6. Upon receiving said warrant, said Marshal shall proceed to collect so much of said tax as is unpaid, by levy upon and sale of the several portions of property upon which the said unpaid tax is a lien, in the same manner and with the same authority as on sales on execution by Sheriffs, and shall return said warrant, with his doings thereon, within thirty days after the receipt thereof by him. If for any reason the whole amount thereof shall not be collected, said Council may issue, with like effect, a subsequent warrant or warrants until all be collected.

Sec. 7. As soon as money enough for that purpose is received from said tax, said Council shall direct the City Marshal to pay or tender to each party to whom damages have been awarded, the sums severally due to them, and thereupon to proceed forthwith and open said street or other improvement; and the same shall thereupon be deemed open to public use, for the purpose and to the extent in the original ordinance prescribed. If any person or party entitled to damages cannot be found by said Marshal, he shall deposit the amount due to them in the city treasury, as a special deposit, subject to their order, and the same shall be deemed a sufficient payment under this Act. The money so deposited shall not be drawn or used for any other purpose whatever.

Sec. 8. All moneys collected under this Act shall be paid into the city treasury as a special fund, for the purposes for which they were collected, and shall not be drawn out or used for any other purpose whatever.

Sec. 9. The City Engineer and the Commissioners to be appointed, as herein prescribed, shall each have the right to go in or upon any property for the purpose of making the survey and examinations above mentioned, or for any other purpose necessary in the discharge of their duties under this Act. Said Commissioners shall each be entitled to ten dollars for the first day, and two dollars for each subsequent day devoted to their duties as such Commissioners, and they shall not receive any other fees or compensation for such services.

Sec. 10. All Acts and parts of Acts in conflict herewith, so far as they conflict herewith, are hereby repealed.

Sec. 11. This Act shall take effect immediately.

CITY WHARF.

An Ordinance creating the office of City Wharfinger, and defining the duties thereof, and fixing the Salary and Bond of the Incumbent of said office. Approved June 3, 1872.

The Council of the City of Oakland do ordain as follows:

Section 1. The office of City Wharfinger is hereby created, the duties of which shall be as in this ordinance hereinafter defined.

Sec. 2. The City Council shall, as soon as they deem the same necessary, appoint some suitable person to said office of City Wharfinger, and to perform the duties thereof, whose salary shall not exceed sixty dollars in gold coin per month, and who shall within ten days after official notice of his appointment execute and file with the City Clerk a good and sufficient bond, in the sum of five thousand dollars, with two sureties, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties; which bond, before filing, shall be approved by the Mayor of the City.

Sec. 3. The duties of said Wharfinger are hereby defined as follows, viz: First—The Wharfinger must be at the wharf every morning (Sundays excepted) at six o'clock, or earlier if the business of the wharf requires his attention, and shall remain on duty until six o'clock p.m. He shall make a daily record of the business of the wharf, which shall contain a correct account of the arrival and departure of every vessel at or from the wharf—her class, name, tonnage, cargo, rate of dockage, and the tolls and wharfage collected. He shall assign positions to all vessels desiring to make fast to the wharf, distribute all freight and merchandise as the same is discharged from vessels or delivered by teams; collect tolls, wharfage and dockage in accordance with the schedule of rates furnished by the City Council; and shall superintend and keep in repair the wharf committed to his charge.

Second—He shall make a daily, weekly and monthly report of the business of the wharf, and pay over all moneys received by him at least once in each week, and make a complete settlement and comparison of accounts with the City Treasurer on the first day of every month, and report the same duly verified to the City Council.

Third—The Wharfinger will be held to a strict responsibility for all credits given for dockage, wharfage or tolls, and if the amounts so credited are not collected within thirty days from the time when they accrued, they will be charged to the Wharfinger and deducted from his salary, unless good cause is shown why said amounts were not collected.

Fourth—The Wharfinger will not be required to visit the wharf on the Sabbath, except in cases of absolute necessity, and the occurrence of severe storms which endanger the safety of the wharf or the shipping lying thereat. On such occasions he will be required to repair to the wharf and remain while any reasonable necessity exists for his service.

Fifth—It shall be the duty of the Wharfinger to see that the following regulations are strictly enforced:
1st. Vessels lying at the end of the wharf shall haul each way to accommodate vessels going in or out, and shall rig in jib boom if specially ordered.

2d. All vessels not discharging or receiving cargo shall make room for vessels needing immediate accommodations; vessels to be discharged to have preference to vessels to be loaded, and in all cases vessels will haul or change berths when so ordered, at their own expense.

3d. No vessel shall be moved or made fast in such a manner or in such a place as to interfere with other vessels going into or out of the slips or through the draw.

4th. No ballast or other heavy matter shall be thrown overboard from any vessel lying at the wharf or in the slip, and all rubbish shall be put upon the wharf and be removed by the master or owner of the vessel from which it came. Vessels ballasting must have a tarpaulin placed from the vessel to the wharf so as to prevent any portion falling into the dock.

5th. No pitch, tar or other combustibles shall be heated on the wharf, and all such work shall be done on floating stages. All discharging engines must have a good and sufficient spark-catcher, and engines not provided with the same will not be allowed upon the wharf.

6th. The City Clerk will furnish the Wharfinger with proper blanks for his daily, weekly and monthly reports.

SEC. 4. This ordinance shall take effect and be in full force on and after its approval.

PACIFIC STONE COMPANY

Ransome's Patents,

For which the Commissioners of the International Exhibition of 1862 awarded the Prize Medal.

A Gold Medal was awarded by the Mechanics' Institute of San Francisco, 1871.

NATURE OF THE MATERIAL.

This remarkable material, which is essentially different from any other which has yet been submitted to the public, and which can be produced in blocks or forms of any dimensions, is suitable not only for the construction of solid masonry, but also for the manufacture of the most elaborate and delicate architectural embellishments. It is a hard, durable and beautiful sand stone, which so closely resembles the best descriptions of our natural stones that it is not easy to distinguish between them.

It can be produced of various colors.

The stone is composed of clean siliceous sand, or other suitable substance, firmly agglomerated into a solid and hard mass by the means of silicate of lime, or of other insoluble silicates.

PROCESS OF MANUFACTURE.

The process of manufacture is simple, although based upon the most scientific principles. The sand, silica, or other mineral substance is intimately mixed with its proper proportion of a solution of silicate of soda. This is effected in an ordinary pug mill, and the mixture, which is thus rendered of a plastic consistency, is either pressed or rammed into blocks or moulds, or it can be rolled into slabs or forms, as may be desired, and is afterwards saturated with a solution of chloride of calcium, when a double decomposition of the two solutions employed (viz: of the silicate of soda and the calcium) immediately takes place. The silicate combines with the calcium, and at once forms an insoluble Sili cate of Lime, firmly enveloping together all the particles of sand or other minerals of which the stone is composed, whilst at the same time the chlorine combines with the soda, and forms chloride of sodium, or common salt, which is removed by subsequent washing.

COST OF PRODUCTION.

The cost of production for moldings or other ornamental work is much less than that at which natural stone can be procured. The principal item of expense in such work is the preparation of the moulds; but when a repetition of the same articles to any extent is required, or when they are made out of our stock moulds, the proportionate cost of the mould to be charged upon each article would be inappreciable.

GENERAL ADVANTAGES.

The Ransome Stone, while exhibiting the characteristics and appearances of the best natural freestone, is more durable, and can be produced of any desired tone of color. It can be moulded into any form, or made in masses of any dimensions.

It requires no artificial drying or burning.

The cost for molded and ornamental work is much less than that of natural stone.

The stones can be made hollow as readily as solid, thus lessening the cost of carriage, and giving great advantages in overhanging cornices and in the decoration of wooden structures.

That whilst most of our natural building stones are rapidly acted upon by acid vapors and the atmosphere, particularly in populous towns, to such an extent as to produce disfiguration and decay in a comparatively short period, the “Ransome Stone” is not only unaffected by such influences, but gradually increases in hardness with the lapse of time; and the opinion expressed by some of our most eminent chemists and geologists is, “that Mr. Ransome has invented a material which, with the exception of the granite, is better capable of giving permanency to external architectural decorations than any stone hitherto used.”

In point of strength the “Patent Concrete Stone” has been proven to be far superior to Portland Stone, or, in fact, to any of the natural stones with which it has been tested.
